Mail Order Tickets

List the date, the kind of ticket (club, upper or pavilion levels), the number of tickets and mail the order to us. Add a $5.00 handling charge and make your check payable to the Atlanta Braves. Send in care of the Atlanta Braves, P.O. Box 4064, Atlanta GA, 30302. Please allow two weeks for delivery.

Group Tickets

Savings of $1.00 per ticket are available to groups of 30-299 in the Upper Level. Groups of 300 or more save $2.00 per ticket in the Upper Level. (No discounts on Opening Night, July 4th, or game day purchases.) Group orders are filled with the best available seating at the time of payment. For additional group information and ordering, please contact the Braves office at (404) 577-9100.

Parking

All Season Ticket Subscribers who currently have a season parking pass will have the option to renew that pass for the 1994 season. No additional passes will be available for sale.

For those without season parking passes, the Braves do recommend two options.

1. Take advantage of the MARTA shuttle to the stadium (please call 404-848-4711 directly for information).

2. Or contact HOME RUN PARKING at 404-455-7317 for information on a limited number of spaces available for season parking beneath the Georgia State Archives Building.

No-Smoking Policy

The Atlanta Braves are instituting a no smoking policy in the seating and general concourse areas of the stadium in 1994. Smoking will be allowed only in designated areas.

1994 Front Office Executives

R.E. Turner

Owner

The Atlanta Braves' participation in post-season play for the third consecutive year has provided much satisfaction to R.E. (Ted) Turner, President and Chairman of the Board of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS), the team's parent company. The Braves' success has validated his faith in the front office, on-the-field staff and playing personnel.

A man of diverse accomplishments, Turner is probably best known for his innovation and foresight in the cable television industry. Under his leadership, Turner Broadcasting has grown into the leading supplier of entertainment and news programming for the basic cable television industry in the United States and a major distributor of programming to broadcasters throughout the world. Included in the company's offerings is a variety of sports programming and events.

In addition to the Braves, major subsidiaries of TBS include: TBS SuperStation, Turner Network Television (TNT), Cable News Network (CNN), Headline News, SportSouth, Turner Program Services, Turner Entertainment Company, Turner Home Entertainment, Turner Publishing, World Championship Wrestling and the NBA Atlanta Hawks.

In December of 1991, Turner acquired the entertainment assets of Hanna-Barbera Production, Inc., including its 3,000-episode library, distribution rights and production facility.

Turner became owner of the Braves on January 14, 1976, when the National League owners unanimously approved the sale by Atlanta LaSalle Corporation to Turner Communications Group, now Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. Turner's ownership of the Braves and Hawks has helped bring stability to the Atlanta sports scene. He has turned over leadership of both teams to experts, including Stan Kasten, who serves as President of both clubs, and Braves General Manager John Schuerholz.

Foreseeing the potential of satellite and cable technology over twenty years ago, Turner forged a new frontier in the television industry. He transformed a small UHF television station in Atlanta into the world's first "superstation" by beaming the station's signal via satellite to cable systems across the U.S. Because of their national exposure on TBS, the Braves have fans in all 50 states.

Turner's enthusiasm for sports and improved international relations led him to create the Goodwill Games, an international, multi-sport event held in Moscow in 1986 and in Seattle in 1990. The 1986 Moscow games marked the first time U.S. and Soviet athletes had come together in a major, international competition since the 1976 Montreal Olympics. TBS is cosponsoring the games this year in St. Petersburg, Russia and in 1998 at New York.

Turner revolutionized the television news industry ten years ago, when he started CNN, the first 24-hour all news television station. In addition to providing in-depth live coverage and analysis of breaking events and comprehensive newscasts, CNN also offers a full range of programs covering the latest in business, weather, sports, entertainment, health and science news. Headline News was launched in 1982 to complement CNN's in-depth news coverage with concise, 30-minute newscasts updated 24 hours a day. Both CNN and Headline News received numerous accolades for their combined coverage of Operation Desert Shield and Operation Desert Storm.

Another of Turner's contributions to the cable industry was the launch of TNT as cable's premier network. With a variety of high-quality, original programming, TNT, now just three years old, is seen in more than 54 million homes. The service is home to many of Hollywood's greatest movies and high-profile sporting events, including the National Basketball Association, the National Football League and the 1992 and 1994 Winter Olympics.

Turner's involvement in sports programming took another step forward with the launch of SportSouth in August of 1990. This southeastern regional network offers Atlanta Braves baseball and Atlanta Hawks and Charlotte Hornets basketball, college football, basketball and baseball, auto racing, volleyball, golf, tennis and other major sporting events. A joint venture with Scripps Howard and TCI, the network is available in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, South Carolina and parts of North Carolina.

Turner was born in Cincinnati on November 19, 1938. He attended Brown University where he was Vice-President of the Debating Union and Commodore of the Brown Yacht Club.

He also is known as a superior yachtsman, having won national and world sailing titles, including a successful defense of the 1977 America's Cup, the 1979 Fastnet Trophy and four Yachtsman of the Year awards.

Turner is an active environmentalist and has received numerous civic and industry honors, including being named Time Magazine's 1991 Man of the Year and receiving the 1992 Governor's Award from the National Academy of Arts and Sciences.

Turner's a board member of the National Cable Television Association. He's also a board member of the Martin Luther King Center for Nonviolent Social Change and the Greater Yellowstone Coalition.

Bill Bartholomay

Chairman of the Board of Directors

Bill Bartholomay, Chairman of the Board of the Braves since their move to Atlanta in 1966, last year witnessed his fifth National League West championship club. The Braves won their first divisional title in 1969, their second in 1982 and in 1991-93 became the first N.L. West team to finish first three straight times since the league divided in 1969.

Bartholomay, involved with the team as chairman for 32 years, led a group which purchased the then Milwaukee Braves in 1962 and shifted the club to Atlanta in 1966. Prior to his association with the Braves, Bartholomay was a director of the White Sox.

Bartholomay, who chaired the Commissioner Search Committee, early in 1994 completed a four-year term on the Commissioner's Executive Council. He was the first representative of the Braves to serve on that board and continues as an ad hoc member. A past member of the National League Executive Committee, Bartholomay is a member of Major League Baseball's Ownership and Restructuring Committee and MLB's Players Benefit Plan. He was also a member of the committee which recommended Bill White as N.L. President in the spring of 1989.

In January of 1994, the Braves 400 Club honored Bartholomay with its Ivan Allen, Jr., "Mr. Baseball" award, presented to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area."

Although best known for his sports leadership, Bartholomay wears many hats in the business world. He's President of Near North National Group and serves as Director of Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. and WMS Industries, Inc. He serves as Chairman of the Chicago Park District Board of Commissioners and as a director or trustee of many other organizations throughout the country.

Stan Kasten

President

The recent performance of the Atlanta Braves has been rewarding for Stan Kasten, who is in his eighth season as the club's President and TBS Vice-President for Sports Teams.

Kasten, 42, probably has more high level sports administration experience than anyone else his age in the country. When he assumed his current duties on November 6, 1986, he simply took on additional responsibilities under owner Ted Turner.

As the Atlanta Hawks' President, Kasten had already established himself as one of the top executives in the National Basketball Association. He was selected by his peers as the NBA

Executive-of-the-Year for the second straight time after the 1986-87 season. With Kasten in the front office, the Hawks have participated in the NBA playoffs 12 of the last 16 seasons.

Kasten's association with Turner goes back 18 years. They met at a Braves-Cardinals game in 1976 in St. Louis, when Kasten was celebrating his graduation from law school with a tour of Major League baseball parks. He soon was appointed in-house legal counsel for the Hawks and the Braves and served as the Hawks' Assistant General Manager for two years before becoming, at age 27, the youngest General Manager in NBA history in November of 1979. He was named the Hawks' President in April of 1986.

Kasten is a member of the Hawks' Board of Directors, a member of the NBA Board of Governors and a trustee of the Basketball Hall of Fame. He speaks regularly to legal associations throughout the country and is on the Board of Directors of the National Sports Lawyers Association. He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Richard Allen Outreach Center, a crisis hot-line service. During his NBA years, Kasten has also served on the NBA's Marketing Committee, the Player Pension Committee and the Expansion Committee.

Kasten was born February 1, 1952, in Lakewood, New Jersey, but grew up in the Freehold, New Jersey area that produced Bruce Springsteen. One of three children, he attended private schools in Baltimore and New York City. He began his college career at Rutgers but transferred to New York University. He graduated from NYU with a degree in Psychology, earned Magna Cum Laude honors and was chosen Phi Beta Kappa. He received a Juris Doctor degree from Columbia Law School and played outfield in the Jersey Shore Summer Baseball League during his law school years.

Stan, his wife, Helen, and their four children (Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay) live in Sandy Springs. Prior to coming to the Braves, Kasten played softball in several leagues in Atlanta during basketball's off season and still competes in an over 30 baseball league. He is an admitted television addict and loves Italian food.

Braves Trivia

Before Greg Maddux in 1991-92, who was the last N.L. pitcher to win back-to-back Cy Young Awards?

Answer: Sandy Koufax in 1966-67

Henry Aaron

Senior Vice-President / Assistant to the President

Several of the current Atlanta Braves players, David Justice, Ron Gant and Tom Glavine, to name a few, came up through the organization's farm system during part of Hank Aaron's 13-year tenure as a Braves Vice-President and Director of Player Development. These players have contributed greatly to the club's recent success and created a sense of deep pride in Aaron.

Appointed Senior Vice-President and Assistant to the President in December of 1989, Aaron works with President Stan Kasten in many phases of the Braves' operations and represents the Braves in community relations activities.

Aaron, the greatest home run hitter of all time, was elected to Baseball's Hall of Fame in January of 1982. He missed by nine votes being the first unanimous choice ever in the voting by the Baseball Writer's Association of America. Aaron received 406 of a possible 415 votes for a percentage of .978. Only Ty Cobb and Tom Seaver have received a higher percentage of the votes cast. Aaron and Frank Robinson were inducted into the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N.Y., on August 1, 1982.

Following his playing career, Aaron joined the Braves' front office on October 7, 1976. He oversaw the development of many players instrumental in the Braves' 1982 National League West Division championship, including Dale Murphy, who won back-to-back N.L. MVP awards in 1982-83.

In his 23-year Major League career, Aaron rewrote baseball's hitting record book. He holds more Major League batting records than any other player in the game's history. Among his records are some truly amazing ones, including Most Runs Batted In, Lifetime, 2,297; Most Long Hits, Lifetime, 1,477; Most Total Bases, Lifetime, 6,856; and, of course, Most Home Runs, Lifetime, 755. His most famous home run came in Atlanta on April 8, 1974, when he hit his 715th, breaking Babe Ruth's seemingly untouchable record. He did it before 53,775 against the Dodgers' Al Downing. Aaron also ranks second on the all-time list in at-bats (12,364) and runs (2,174, tied with Babe Ruth), third in games (3,298) and hits (3,771), ninth in doubles (624), 11th in singles (2,294) and tied for 14th in years of service (23).

On May 17, 1970, Hank singled at Cincinnati to become the first player to compile both 3,000 career hits and more than 500 homers. He joined the 30-30 club (30 HR's and 30 SB's in the same season) in 1963. Hank played in the Major League All-Star Game 24 times, including the years 1959-61 when two games were played. He was honored as the National League's Most Valuable Player in 1957 and named Player of the Year by The Sporting News in 1956 and 1963. He played 21 seasons with the Braves before being traded to Milwaukee for outfielder Dave May and minor leaguer Roger Alexander at the end of the 1974 season. Aaron retired as a player two years later.

Aaron, a vice-president and member of the Board of Directors of Turner Broadcasting and the Braves, is also the Vice-President for Business Development for the Airport Channel. He serves on the National Board of the NAACP, the National Board of Big Brothers/Big Sisters of America, the Sterling Committee of Morehouse College and is very active in the Hank Aaron Rookie League program.

Aaron and his wife, the former Billye Suber, live in Atlanta. They have five children, Gail, Hank Jr., Lary, Dorinda and Ceci.

John Schuerholz

Executive Vice-President and General Manager

It is doubtful if anyone in baseball has ever energized an entire city as quickly as John Schuerholz, the Braves' Executive Vice-President and General Manager, did with Atlanta.

Since his arrival in Atlanta in October of 1990, the Braves have played in two World Series and won a third consecutive National League West title. In each of those years, the Braves set a franchise attendance record.

A man of action when it comes to addressing his team's needs, Schuerholz traded three minor league players to San Diego for Fred McGriff in July of 1993. Nine games out of first place before McGriff's first game July 20, the Braves went 51-17 the rest of the way en route to a franchise-best 104-58 record. During the 1992-93 off-season, Schuerholz signed free agent Cy Young Award winner Greg Maddux to a five-year contract and made long-term deals with Tom Glavine and John Smoltz.

When the bullpen was having some health problems with about five weeks left in the 1992 season, reliever Jeff Reardon joined the Braves. When a similar situation occurred in 1991, Alejandro Pena came on board. Prior to that season, Terry Pendleton, Sid Bream, Rafael Belliard, Otis Nixon and Deion Sanders, among others, became Braves. The man behind all those moves - John Schuerholz.

As a result of the Braves' 1991 regular season and post-season success, Schuerholz earned several awards. He was named baseball's Executive of the Year by UPI, the Boston Writer's Association and the Maryland Tops in Sports group, Executive of the Year by the Georgia Securities Association and Georgian of the Year by Georgia Trend magazine.

The Sporting News, in a poll of baseball's general managers, selected Schuerholz the Major League Executive of the Year for 1985, when Kansas City won the World Series.

A native of Baltimore, Schuerholz joined the Royals in August of 1968 as an administrative assistant and was involved in the expansion draft which created the first ever Royals roster. In 1970 he was named assistant farm director and in 1975 became Farm Director. He was promoted to Director of Player Procurement and Development in 1976 and Vice President-Player Personnel in 1979. In October of 1981, at the age of 41, he was named Executive Vice-President and General Manager.

Schuerholz, a junior high school teacher in Baltimore for four and one-half years, began his baseball career as an assistant in the minor league and scouting departments of the Baltimore Orioles in 1966. He is a graduate of Towson (MD) State University, where he was an all-conference choice in baseball and soccer and was named the Athlete of the Year in 1962. He was inducted into Towson State's Hall of Fame in 1973.

Schuerholz and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Gina, and a son, Jonathan.

Braves Trivia

Which day of the week were the Braves most successful during the 1993 season?

Answer: On Sunday's in 1993, the Braves were 21-6 (78%)

Bob Wolfe

Senior Vice-President of Administration

Bob Wolfe, in his second stint with the Braves, rejoined the organization in March of 1992 as Vice-President of Administration. Wolfe originally worked in the Braves' accounting department from 1980-1984, before moving to the Atlanta Hawks as the team's business manager in 1985. He was named Vice-President/Business Manager of the Hawks in 1988, and still serves as a Vice-President for the NBA club. He was promoted to his current post with the Braves in August, 1992.

In his present capacity, Wolfe supervises the business areas of the company, including finance, marketing, ticket operations, stadium operations, office administration, minor league operations and concessions operations.

The 37-year-old Wolfe graduated from Oglethorpe University in 1980 with a degree in business administration. A four-year member of the school's basketball team, he was named to the school's Athletic Hall-of-Fame in 1989.

Wolfe serves on the Board of Directors for both the Atlanta Hawks Foundation and the Atlanta Braves Foundation.

Wolfe and his wife Kelly Koelker, reside in Lilburn, GA.

Dean Taylor

Assistant General Manager

Dean Taylor, one of the bright, young minds in baseball, was named the Atlanta Braves Assistant General Manager on November 1, 1990. When he came to Atlanta, Taylor rejoined General Manager John Schuerholz, with whom he had worked for ten years in Kansas City.

Taylor's responsibilities include player contract negotiations, baseball operations administration and waiver and rule compliance. He also works closely with the scouting and player development departments, and handles National League scheduling matters.

Taylor, 43, spent the 1990 season as Manager of Baseball Operations for Major League Baseball. Before assuming his post in the Commissioner's Office in April of 1990, Taylor had worked for the Royals since 1980. He served as the Royals' Administrative Assistant for Minor League Operations and Assistant Director of Scouting and Player Development until being named Assistant to the General Manager in November of 1985. He was a general manager on the minor league level for five seasons prior to joining the Kansas City staff.

A native of Roseburg, OR, Taylor graduated from Claremont (CA) College in 1973 with a B.A. degree in Economics and Ohio University in 1975 with a Master's Degree in Sports Administration.

Taylor and his wife, Susan, live in metropolitan Atlanta. He has one son, Chris, 20.

Chuck LaMar

Assistant General Manager / Player Personnel

Chuck LaMar, at 37, is entering his fourth season with the Braves in a new position. He was named Assistant General Manager / Player Personnel in December of 1993.

In addition to his responsibilities of overseeing both the Scouting and Player Development departments, LaMar will also work with General Manager John Schuerholz in all matters of major league player personnel.

LaMar originally joined the Braves in November of 1990 as the Director of Scouting and Player Development. Under his direction, the Braves' scouting and minor league system has received numerous honors, including being named BASEBALL AMERICA's Minor League Organization-of-the-Year in 1991 and USA TODAY and The Sporting News' Minor League Organization-of-the-Year in 1992.

Prior to joining the Braves, LaMar had been the Pittsburgh Pirates' Director of Minor League Operations for the 1988 and 1989 seasons.

His baseball personnel experience also includes serving as a scouting supervisor for the Cincinnati Reds from 1985-88, in which he was responsible for signing ten 40-man roster players, including Major Leaguers Jack Armstrong, Scott Scudder, Steve Foster, Fred Benavides, Rosario Rodriguez and Mike Anderson.

LaMar was the head baseball coach at the University of Mary Hardin-Baylor in Belton, Texas, in 1984 and 1985, an assistant coach at Indiana University from 1981 through 1983 and head coach at Houston's St. Thomas High School in 1979 and 1980.

LaMar and his wife, Cheryl, have three children: Sarah (11), Emily (9) and Charlie (1).

Wayne Long

Vice-President, Marketing and Broadcasting

Wayne Long enters his sixth season as a Braves' Vice-President and Director of Marketing and Broadcasting, but his 22nd with the organization overall.

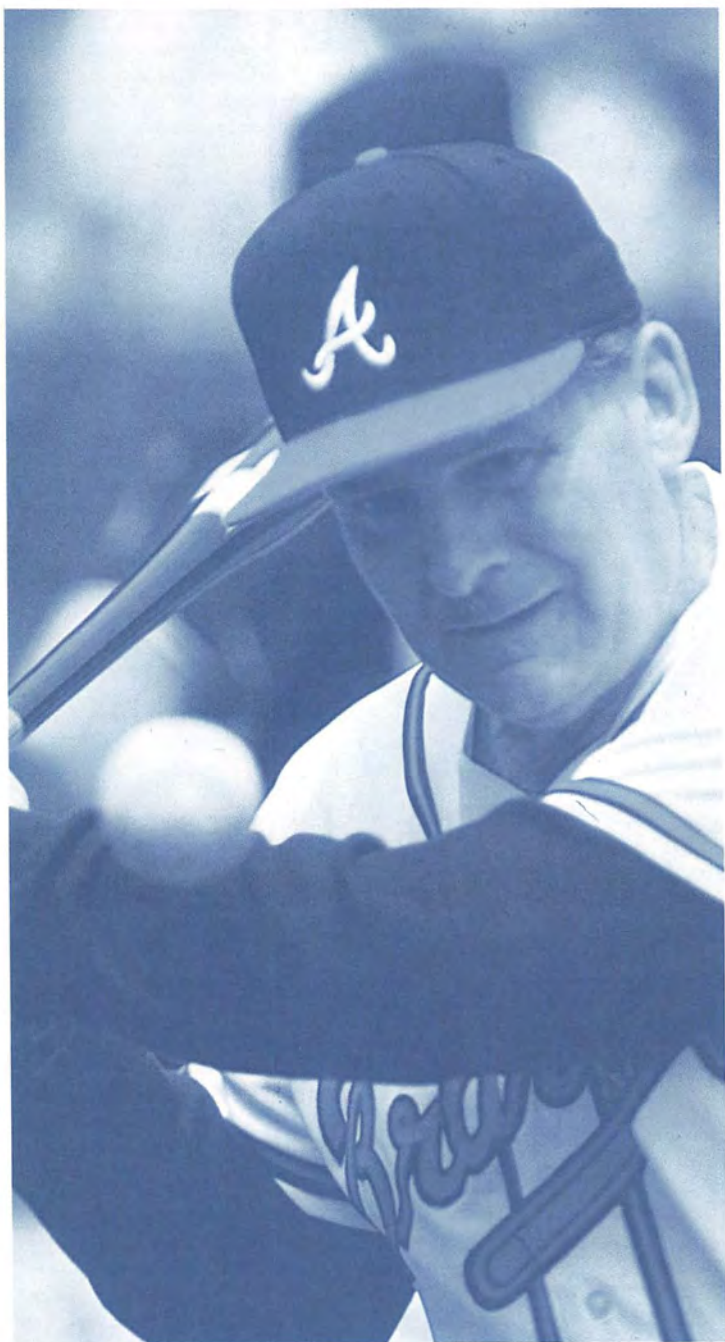

For 11 of those years, he lent his broadcasting sales and management expertise to the Atlanta Hawks and, for three years, to the Chiefs, Atlanta's entry in the North American Soccer League.

Long, who started with the Braves as Manager of Broadcast Sales in 1973, was named Director of Radio Operations for the Braves, Hawks and Chiefs in 1976. He became the Braves' Director of Broadcasting in 1986, then Director of Marketing and Broadcasting in 1987 and assumed his current position in 1989.

Long received a bachelor of science degree in management from Ohio State and an MBA in marketing from Georgia State.

Long, his wife, Sandra, and their three sons, Steven; 19, Kevin, 16; and Justin, 14, reside in Dunwoody.

Bobby Cox #6

Manager

HT: 6' 0" WT: 185
OPENING DAY AGE: 52
BORN: 5/21/41 at Tulsa, OK
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

Bobby Cox has always been level-headed in his approach to baseball. He's patient, supportive of his players and quick to credit his coaches. He doesn't look beyond the upcoming game and doesn't panic.

It must be working. The Atlanta Braves, under Cox's guidance, have won more games in the past three years, including a franchise-record 104 wins last year, than any team in baseball. Also in 1993, the Braves became the first National League West team to win three straight divisional titles. The Sporting News named Cox, now the Braves winningest manager (602 victories) in the modern era, National League Manager-of-the-Year for the second time in three seasons.

The Braves' performance in 1991, when they went from worst to first, captured the first of two consecutive National League pennants and participated in one of the most dramatic World Series in history, earned Cox several post-season honors. Among others, the Associated Press named him Major League Manager of the Year. Cox became the first manager to earn that honor in both leagues, having also won it while with the Blue Jays in 1985.

Cox, 52, managed the Braves from 1978-81, compiling a 266-323 record and laying the groundwork for the club's National League West title in 1982. He received numerous votes for N.L. Manager of the Year in 1980, when Atlanta was 81-80, its best record in six years.

Cox began a four-year tenure as Toronto's manager in 1982, lifting an habitual seventh-place team to within one game of attaining a 1985 World Series berth. The eventual World Champion Kansas City Royals eliminated Toronto in a seven-game American League Championship Series.

In 1982, Cox led the Blue Jays to a 78-84 mark, the best record in their six-year existence. Toronto improved to 89-73 each of the next two seasons and then won the American League East crown by going 99-62 in 1985. For his efforts that year, Cox was named The Sporting News Major League Manager of the Year and accorded a similar honor by the Baseball Writers of America.

Cox returned to the Braves as General Manager in October of 1985 and oversaw a farm system which produced many of the team's current standouts. He added the field managing responsibilities on June 22, 1990, then devoted all his time to those duties when the Braves named John Schuerholz General Manager in October of that year.

Cox spent seven years in the Dodgers' farm system before being acquired by Atlanta late in 1966. After playing in 1967 for AAA Richmond, he was traded to the New York Yankees and beat out Mike Ferraro, the Yankees' outstanding spring training rookie, for the third base job in 1968. Cox made the Topps Rookie All-Star team that season, but lost his job to roommate Bobby Murcer in 1969.

Bad knees forced Cox to retire at the age of 30. He was appointed manager of the Yankees' Class A Fort Lauderdale club in 1971. His teams never finished lower than fourth in his six seasons in the Yankees' system. He won the Eastern League pennant and championship with West Haven in 1972 and placed second twice and third twice in four years at Syracuse, winning the International League's Governor's Cup in 1976. After serving as the Yankees' first base coach in 1977, Cox moved south to manage the Braves.

Cox was born May 21, 1941, at Tulsa, OK. He graduated from Selma (CA) High School in 1959 and attended Reedley (CA) Junior College. Cox, his wife, Pam, and three daughters, Keisha, Kami and Skyla, live in Marietta.

Jim Beauchamp #37

Dugout Coach

HT: 6' 2"

WT: 205

OPENING DAY AGE: 54

BORN: 8/21/39 at Vinita, OK

RESIDES: Tyrone, GA

Jim Beauchamp, who capped a 16-year minor league managerial career with three seasons as the Richmond Braves' skipper, returns for his fourth campaign as Atlanta's dugout coach in 1994.

Beauchamp, who played for the Atlanta Crackers and the Braves in the '60's, compiled a 218-214 record at Richmond from 1988-1990, including a first-place finish in 1989.

He had managed in the Braves' farm system since 1985, when he began a three-year stint at Greenville. Of his 16 years managing, he spent four at AA and 12 at AAA. His first managerial job came at Columbus (GA) in 1975, when he led his club to a second-place tie in the Southern League. Beauchamp moved on to the AAA level at Memphis in 1976, and over the next three seasons, guided Memphis and Charleston into the International League playoffs. Charleston captured the Governor's Cup in 1977 and finished first in the regular season in 1978.

After a final year at Charleston in 1979, Beauchamp piloted Indianapolis for two years before moving on to manage Syracuse from 1982 through 1984. During his term at Greenville from 1985-87, Beauchamp worked with several members of the current Atlanta team, including Ron Gant and Tom Glavine. He directed the 1989 R-Braves to the International League championship.

Beauchamp began his professional career in 1958, playing professionally for 17 years. His best minor league season came in 1963, when he was named the Texas League Most Valuable Player after hitting .337 with 31 homers and 105 RBI. In 1964 Beauchamp tied for 2nd in the Pacific Coast League with 31 homers and then paced the International League when he belted 25 homers for the Richmond Braves in 1966. The Vinita, OK native, whose career was marred by injuries, wore the M.L. uniforms of the Cardinals, Astros, Braves, Reds and Mets, and appeared in the 1973 World Series with New York.

Jim, his wife, Pam, and daughters Shana and Lauren, live in Tyrone, GA. Jim has three other children, Kash, Tim and Ann Rene.

BORN: 3/20/41 at Los Angeles, CA

RESIDES: Atlanta, GA

Pat Corrales is in his fifth season as the Braves' first base coach, and his 36th year in professional baseball.

Corrales joined the Braves as an advance and special assignments scout on September 24, 1989, and joined Atlanta's coaching staff on June 25, 1990, two days after Bobby Cox took over the managerial reins.

In his nine years as a Major League manager, Corrales compiled an overall record of 572-634 (.474) with Texas, Philadelphia and Cleveland. His first job as a big league pilot came in 1978 with the Rangers, when he replaced Billy Hunter with one game remaining in the season. Corrales went on to guide the Rangers to third and fourth place finishes in 1979 and 1980, respectively.

He was named manager of the Phillies in 1982, leading them to a second-place finish; he was replaced in 1983 just after the All-Star break, despite leading the N.L. East with a 43-42 mark. Less than two weeks later, Corrales found himself back in the dugout as the skipper of the Indians, remaining with the Tribe until midway through the 1987 campaign. In 1986, he led the Indians to an 84-78 record (their most wins since 1968) and finished 11.5 games out of first place (their closest finish since 1959).

Corrales' 1986 team became only the 10th team in major league history to lose 100 games one year and finish .500 or better the next, and he was recognized for his work by placing fourth in the A.L. Manager of the Year balloting by the BBWAA. He became only the fourth manager in major league history to manage in both the American and National leagues in the same season.

Corrales, who has been selected as an All-Star coach six times in his career, managed at Alexandria of the Texas League in 1975, before joining the Rangers for three seasons as a coach under Frank Lucchesi. He played in the majors for eight seasons as a catcher for the Phillies, Cards, Reds and Padres.

Pat, his wife, Donna, and a son, Patrick, live in Atlanta. Pat has four other children: Rene, Michele, Patricia and Jason.

Clarence Jones #28

Hitting Coach

HT: 6' 3" WT: 220
OPENING DAY AGE: 52
BORN: 11/7/41 at Zanesville, OH
RESIDES: Stone Mountain, GA

Clarence Jones, a coach with the Braves since 1984, has been in Atlanta since May of 1988, when he was named batting instructor. He served as first base coach from 1989 to June of 1990, when Bobby Cox asked him to work with Braves hitters exclusively.

During the Braves success of the past three years, virtually everyone has contributed offensively. David Justice, Ron Gant and Jeff Blauser enjoyed their most productive seasons in 1993, when the Braves led the N.L. in homers for the second straight season. In 1992, Terry Pendleton had another great season, Deion Sanders hit .304 and Blauser closed with a rush.

In 1991, Gant produced his second consecutive 30-30 season, Pendleton hit a career-high .319 and Justice had 87 RBI in 109 games. Justice was named the N.L.'s Rookie-of-the-Year and Gant the league's comeback Player-of-the-Year in 1990.

The constant in all this - Jones. He joined the Braves as a minor league instructor in 1984, coached at Class A Sumter in 1987 and started 1988 as a minor league instructor again.

Signed by the Phillies in 1959, Jones earned minor-league honors as the Northwest League's Player-of-the-Year in 1964, hitting .344 with 33 homers and a league-leading 120 RBI while playing for Salem. After spending parts of two seasons with the Cubs, he went to play in Japan from 1970-1977, becoming in 1974 the first American player to capture the Japanese home run title. Jones wound up batting .311 with 23 homers.

Clarence and his wife, Daphne, reside in Stone Mountain.

Leo Mazzone #54

Pitching Coach

HT: 5' 10" WT: 190
OPENING DAY AGE: 45
BORN: 10/16/48 at Keyser, WV
RESIDES: Cumberland, MD

Leo Mazzone has been developing pitchers at various levels of the Braves' organization since 1979, but nothing has given him more satisfaction than the past three seasons.

Once again, in 1993, starting pitching played a key role in the Braves' accomplishments. The Braves led the major leagues in ERA and each of the four starters accumulated at least 35 starts and 220 innings. In 1992, the Braves set a franchise record with 24 shutouts and led the National League with a 3.14 ERA.

Mazzone, 45, was named the Braves' pitching coach for the second time on June 22, 1990, the day Bobby Cox replaced Russ Nixon as manager. Mazzone had reached the major league level for the first time in 1985, when, after an 18-year career as a minor league player, coach and manager, he joined Atlanta as a co-pitching coach.

After retiring as a pitcher at the end of the 1975 season, Mazzone managed Class A Corpus Christi in 1976 and 1977. He managed Class A Kinston of the Carolina League in 1978 and then took a position as a minor league pitching instructor in the Braves' organization from 1979-82. He worked as the pitching coach in Durham from 1983 to July 21 of 1984 before winding up that season as Greenville's manager. He was a coach at Sumter and Greenville in 1986 and 1987, respectively, and served as Richmond's pitching coach from 1988 to June of 1990.

Mazzone pitched in the minors from 1967-75, with his best season coming with Class A Decatur in the Midwest League in 1969, when he went 15-10 with a 2.52 ERA. At AA Amarillo of the Texas League in 1972, Mazzone compiled a 2.62 ERA, but missed qualifying for the league ERA title by four innings pitched.

Leo and his wife, Gregg, reside in Rawlings, MD, in the off season. They have three boys: Anthony, Christopher and Nicholas.

Jimmy Williams #22

Third Base Coach

HT: 5' 11" WT: 170
OPENING DAY AGE: 50
BORN: 10/4/43 at Arroyo Grande, CA
RESIDES: Dunedin, FL

Jimmy Williams and Bobby Cox were reunited on June 25, 1990, when Cox added Williams to his staff as the Braves' third base coach. Previously, Williams had performed the same duties under Cox at Toronto from 1982-85, when Cox piloted the Blue Jays. Williams joined the Braves on October 4, 1989, serving as minor league instructor before assuming his present duties.

The 1994 season marks Williams' 28th in professional ball, with the last 20 years spent in a coaching or managerial capacity. As manager of Toronto from 1986 to 1989, Williams won 281 games and lost 241, with the Blue Jays finishing only two games out of first place in his last two full seasons. He had signed with Toronto as a coach in 1980, two years before Cox's arrival.

After retiring as an active player in 1971 (except for a 6-game stint in 1975), Williams obtained his first managing job at the Angels' Quad Cities affiliate in the Midwest League in 1974, leading his club to a first-place finish in the first half in the Southern Division. The only sub-.500 season Williams endured was in 1975 at El Paso of the Texas League. He was promoted the following year to Salt Lake City, where he guided his team to a 90-54 mark and a first place finish. Williams moved on to the Cardinals' organization at Springfield in 1978, ending the campaign in third place. In 1979 he returned to Salt Lake City, finishing second in the regular season before winning the Pacific Coast League championship.

Williams, a shortstop throughout his career, played semi-pro ball in South Dakota ('63) and Alaska ('64), before beginning his pro career at Waterloo of the Midwest League in 1965. His major league career consisted of 14 games with the Cardinals from 1966-67, but he collected his first hit off Hall of Famer Juan Marichal.

Jimmy, his wife, Peggy, and their four children, Monica, Brady, Shawn and Jenna, live in Dunedin, FL, during the off season.

Ned Yost #52

Bullpen Coach

HT: 6' 1" WT: 185
OPENING DAY AGE: 38
BORN: 8/19/55 at Eureka, CA
RESIDES: Marietta, GA

At 38, Ned Yost is the youngest member of Bobby Cox's coaching staff.

Yost, the Braves' bullpen coach, made his major league coaching debut in 1991, after having spent the previous three seasons managing Atlanta's Class A affiliate at Sumter. While there, he worked with several of the Braves' heralded prospects, including Ryan Klesko.

The Eureka, CA, native joined the Braves' organization in 1986, batting .248 in 80 games at Greenville and .294 in 8 games at Richmond. A catcher in his playing days, Yost retired after the 1987 season, closing out a 14-year career at Greenville and Richmond.

Yost was the Mets' first choice in the secondary phase of the 1974 draft and advanced to AAA Tidewater before being selected by Milwaukee in the minor league draft in December of 1977. He made his big-league debut with the Brewers in 1980 and served as a backup catcher for Milwaukee through the 1983 campaign. Yost saw action in the 1982 World Series, drawing a walk in his only plate appearance.

Traded to Texas after the 1983 season, Yost spent all of 1984 with the Rangers, before being released in spring training the following year. Within a month, the Expos signed Yost as a free agent and assigned him to AAA Indianapolis. He saw his final major league action when he was recalled by the Expos in the last month of the 1985 season.

Ned and his wife, Deborah, reside in Marietta, GA. They have four children: Ned IV, Josh, Jennifer and Andrew.

Frank Fultz #69*Strength and Conditioning*

HT: 6' 0" WT: 180
OPENING DAY AGE: 42
BORN: 11/15/51 at Chicago, IL
RESIDES: Highlands Ranch, CO

Frank Fultz has served as the Braves' strength and conditioning coach for the past two seasons, after spending 1988-91 with the Pirates at the minor league level in the same capacity.

Fultz's first stint in the major leagues came with Houston in 1986-87, where he assisted the Astros' strength and conditioning coach.

His career at the collegiate level includes a stint as associate head coach for the University of Houston baseball team in 1986-87 and a nine-year tenure as head baseball coach at Texas Wesleyan College. From 1979-85, Texas Wesleyan was the NAIA District II Conference champions and the regional champions in 1980-81.

Fultz began his career in the amateur ranks in 1976-77 as the pitching coach at Triton College in River Grove, IL, before moving on to serve as pitching coach at George Mason University in 1978.

After receiving his B.S. in educational psychology at Texas Wesleyan in 1973, Fultz went on to earn his Master's Degree in Physical Education / Exercise Physiology at Utah State University in 1974.

In 1976, he received a doctorate from the University of Utah in Health Science.

Dr. Fultz and his wife, Patricia, reside in Highlands Ranch, CO. They have two children: Angelina and Natalie.

ACQUIRED: Was the Braves' second selection (4th round) in the 1983 June draft.

1993 SEASON: --Assembled the best numbers of his career in several offensive categories ...Established career highs in both home runs (36) and RBI (117) ...Finished fifth in the N.L. MVP voting, giving the Braves three in the top five (Justice third, McGriff fourth) ...Ranks fourth on all-time Atlanta list with 157 stolen bases ...Of his 36 homers, 18 gave the Braves the lead or win ...Belted the first regular season grand slam of his career September 14 vs. Cincinnati (also hit one in the second game of 1992 NLCS) ...Surpassed the 100 RBI mark for the second time in his career ...Equalled his career-best with six RBI September 11 at San Diego, the most by a Brave in '93 ...Scored 61 runs in his last 67 games and led the Braves with a career-high 113 for the season ...Has now scored 100+ runs three times in his career (107-1990, 101-1991) ...Is a 30-20 man (36 HR, 24 SB) for the third time in his career (1990-91, he was a 30-30 man) ...Batted .290 (78x269) with 16 HR and 62 RBI after the acquisition of Fred McGriff July 18 ...Twenty-two of his 36 home runs were solo shots and he had three two-homer games (vs. Reds on 5/27 and 6/12, and vs. Florida on 7/5) ...After getting off to a slow start, he batted .333 (50x150) with runners in scoring position after May 5 ...Was one game shy of equalling his career-high 13-game hitting streak July 23 to August 4 ...During the 12-game span he batted .321 (17x53, 4 HR, 12 RBI) ...Knocked in 15 runs in a four-game stretch September 11-15 ...Closed out the campaign with 25 RBI in his last 20 games ...Hit .293 (44x150) vs. lefties and .403 (25x62) with runners on third ...Finished third in the league with 113 runs, 117 RBI and 309 total bases, tied for fifth with 36 home runs, and tied for seventh with 67 extra-base hits.

1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --His major league post-season stolen base record of eleven straight was snapped when Phillies' catcher Darren Daulton gunned him down in the third inning of Game 4 ...His three NLCS doubles are one shy of tying the record set four times previously ...His two doubles in Game 2 tied an NLCS record for most doubles in a game.

PRO CAREER: 1992: --Despite sub-par season, Gant became the first Brave in franchise history to record three consecutive years with 30+ stolen bases and 80+ RBI ...Joined Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews, Dale Murphy and Wally Berger as the only Braves since 1900 with three straight seasons of 80+ RBI ...His three stolen bases on June 7 at San Diego matched his career high, set May 2, 1990 at Montreal (also equalled in Game 2 of 1991 NLCS at Pittsburgh) ...Gant was selected to his first NL All-Star Game ...Reached the 30-stolen base mark for the third straight season on August 31 at New York (game 1) ...Endured a three-month slump from June 8 to September 9, batting only .199 in 72 games with four homers and 25 RBI ...Went 30 games without a homer from July 22 to August 30 ...Hit .400 (8x20) with runners on third and two out ...Came on strong at finish, batting .309 (25x81) over final 25 games from September 10 through end of season.

1992 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Blasted first career grand slam and 4th in NLCS history in Game 2 off Bucs' Bob Walk ...Also took Tim Wakefield deep in Game 3 ...Set major league record as he stole one base in LCS and two in World Series, making him 11x11 in career post-season play.

1991: --Entered the record books by becoming only the third player in Major League history to produce back-to-back 30-30 seasons (30 homers and 30 stolen bases) ...Only Willie Mays (1956-57) and Bobby Bonds (1977-78) had ever accomplished the feat before Gant ...Became the first Brave to drive in 100+ runs in a season since Dale Murphy knocked in 105 in 1987 ...Finished 3rd in the N.L. with 32 homers, 2nd with 70 extra-base hits, 8th in slugging pct. at .496, 5th with 101 runs and 105 RBI, 8th with 278 total bases, T5th with 35 doubles and T9th with 34 stolen bases ...Finished 6th in N.L. MVP balloting ...Gant's nine homers in May tied San Diego's Fred McGriff for the N.L. high ...Hit .348 with seven homers and 22 RBI in July ...Led majors with 21 game-winning hits ...Collected 67 RBI in his last 84 games after July 2 ...Belted four homers in five games May 27-31 ...Circled the bases for an inside-the-park homer at St. Louis on July 20 ...Reached the 500-hit mark for his career on August 28 vs. New York ...Gant and Tom Glavine were named to The Sporting News' Silver Slugger Team, making the pair the first Braves other than four-time winner Dale Murphy to receive honors since the award's inception in 1980.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Set an NLCS record with seven stolen bases, breaking the old mark of five, held by the Dodgers' Davey Lopes in 1981 (five games) and Steve Sax in 1988

Atlanta Braves

Gant, Continued

(seven games) ...Became the fourth N.L. player to steal three bases in an LCS contest when he performed the feat in Game 2 at Pittsburgh on October 10 ...Supplied solo homer off Bucs' Bob Kipper in Game 3 in Atlanta ...First-inning sacrifice fly in Game 7 at Pittsburgh proved to be the game-winner as Braves shut out Pirates, 4-0, to capture N.L. pennant ...Involved in one of the Series' most controversial plays, when, in Game 2 at Minnesota, replays indicated Gant was pushed off first base by Twins' Kent Hrbek ...Went 3x4 with one triple, one RBI and three runs scored in Braves' 14-5 rout of Twins in Game 5.

1990:--USA TODAY and Sports Illustrated named Gant their 1990 Comeback Player-of-the-Year after he surprised the baseball world by becoming the 13th 30-30 player in Major League history ...Became the third Brave in franchise history to attain the 30-30 club, joining Aaron ('63) and Murphy ('83) ...Ranked 3rd in the N.L. with 310 total bases and 69 extra-base hits, 4th with a .539 SLG% and 107 runs scored, T4th with 55 multi-hit games, T6th with 32 homers and T8th with 34 doubles ...In his final 127 games, Gant hit .311, with 30 homers and 78 RBI ...Went on a torrid stretch May 16-June 4, hitting in 16 of 17 games (30x66, .455BA, 5HR, 13RBI) to raise his batting average from .242 to .353 ...Set a career high and matched Atlanta's season high with six RBI in his two-homer night vs. New York on July 5 ...Elected to continue playing after reaching .300 mark in his second at bat in the next-to-last game at San Francisco on October 2; stroked three hits in final five at-bats over last two games to finish year at .303 ...Hit .313 at home, with 18 homers and 47 RBI ...Honored as N.L. Player-of-the-Week for August 20-26.

1989:--Started 1989 as Atlanta's third baseman, but struggled (60 G, .172, 6HR, 21RBI, 16E) and was optioned to A Sumter on June 21, where he was moved to center field ...Spent two weeks at Sumter, hitting .385, then promoted to AAA Richmond on July 4 ...In 63 games, he hit .262, with 11 homers and 27 RBI ...Named Player-of-the-Week in International League July 23-29 ...Recalled from Richmond on September 6 and started 12 games in center and two in left the rest of season.

1988:--Had strong offensive year, leading all M.L. rookies in homers (19), RBI (60), runs (85), extra base hits (55) and triples (8) ...Finished fourth in N.L. Rookie-of-the-Year voting ...85 runs and eight triples led the Braves ...His 19 homers, 19 stolen bases and 247 total bases were second on team ...Had nine-game hitting streak August 1-10 (14x39, .359, 15R) ...Had two four-hit games (June 27 vs. San Francisco and October 1 at Cincinnati).

1987:--The fifth-year pro earned Southern League All-Star honors in his first taste of AA action ...Collected 82 RBI and stole 24 bases for Greenville in 140 games ...Was promoted to the majors at end of the AA season on September 1 ...Made M.L. debut on September 6 as a pinch-hitter vs. Montreal (struck out) ...Collected first M.L. hit on September 8, a single off San Diego's Ed Whitson ...Clubbed first homer off Houston's Nolan Ryan on September 24 in Atlanta.

1986:--Was only Braves' minor leaguer to hit 20+ homers, drive in 100 runs and score 100 runs ...Earned Carolina League All-Star honors, Baseball America's A All-Star honors, C.L. Utility Infielder-of-the-Year and the Bill Lucas Award as Atlanta's Minor League Player-of-the-Year.

1985:--Hit seven homers and stole 19 bases during first stint at A Sumter.

1984:--Showed steady improvement in his second year as a pro.

1983:--Began pro career at Bradenton (Rookie).

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed thru '94

ACQUIRED: Was the Braves' 25th selection (27th round) in the 1983 June draft.

1993 SEASON: --In his first full season as the Braves starting second baseman he set career-highs in most offensive categories ...Posted highs in homers (7), RBI (49), runs (52), and hits (124) ...Reeled off a career-high 10-game hitting streak July 18-27 (.474, 18x38) ...Had first two-homer game of his career May 7, at Colorado ...Finished the season with a .482 slugging percentage from the right side ...Was sidelined for two weeks and did not start games between September 8-17 because of a sprained left knee ...Batted .309 from the right side (43x139, 5 HR) and .278 (15x54) with runners in scoring position and less than two out ...Hit .303 (37x122) on turf.

1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --In Game 3 of NLCS, doubled with bases loaded, driving in three runs ...Drove in the Braves only run in Game 4 with a double in the second inning.

PRO CAREER: 1992: --Contributed usual steady glove work, committing only nine errors ...Matched career high with a nine-game hitting streak (15x37, .405) August 1-11 ...He connected for three homers in nine games, August 6-15, after having six homers in first 369 career games ...His 155 games marked a career high ...Fanned once every 10.9 at-bats, which would have ranked tied for eighth in the NL for lowest strikeout ratio if he had had another 11 plate appearances.

1992 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Extended post-season hitting streak to eight games by going 6x11 (.545) in first three NLCS games (after hitting safely in last five games of 1991 World Series) ...Hit .333 (7x21) in LCS and .211 (4x19) in World Series ...Started every post-season game.

1991: --Filled in admirably for injury-plagued second baseman Jeff Treadway, especially over season's final two weeks ...Compiled a career-high nine-game hitting streak (12x38, .316) September 22 - October 1 ...Made 49 starts at second and two starts at third ...Fanned only 27 times in 269 at-bats ...Led all Braves' pinch-hitters, going 9x27 (.333), with a team-best 5 RBI ...His .333 pinch-hit batting average ranked 6th in the N.L. (minimum 10 at-bats) ...Went 4x13 (.308) with runners on third and two out ...Committed only 10 errors in 136 games ...Hit .280 at home (37x132) ...Homer on July 29 vs. Pittsburgh's Stan Belinda was first since September 23, 1989 ...Key hit in '91 was single off Rob Dibble in the 9th inning of the Braves' heralded comeback from a 6-0 deficit in the 1st inning on October 1 ...Lemke's hit was followed by Justice's eventual game-winning homer, which accounted for final 7-6 margin.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Started six of seven games in LCS vs. Pirates ...Lemke's RBI double in 6th inning of Game 2 at Pittsburgh provided the only run of the game in a 1-0 squeaker ...Made World Series own personal showcase as Braves' consensus MVP ...Batted .417 (10x24) with one double, three triples and four RBI ...His three triples tied a M.L. record for a seven-game series (Billy Johnson, New York Yankees, 1947) ...Swatted two triples in Game 5, becoming the 6th player to collect two three-baggers in a Series contest (last done by L.A.'s Tommy Davis in 1963) ...Crunched three triples in four at-bats over Games 4-5 ...Singled in Justice with winning run in 12th inning of Game 3, the first World Series win in Atlanta Braves history ...Delivered one-out triple in 9th inning of Game 4, scoring the deciding run on pinch-hitter Jerry Willard's sac fly ...Led Braves in Series slugging pct. at .708.

1990: --Got out of gate slowly, hitting .171 in 35 games, before he was knocked out of action when he severely sprained his left ankle during a rain delay vs. Montreal on May 28 ...Placed on D.L. next day, where he remained until July 17 when he was recalled from his Bradenton rehabilitation assignment ...Led a 24-hit attack at Chicago on August 18 with a 5x6 performance ...The 5 hits for Lemke established a career high and was also a team high for Braves in '90 (Atlanta won, 17-6) ...From August 18 through the end of the season, Lemke hit .322 (30x93).

1989: --Continued his climb through the Braves' organization with a strong season at AAA Richmond, leading the R-Braves in RBI (61) ...Ranked fifth among Baseball America's top ten prospects in the International League, and the top second-baseman ...Won MVP award in AAA All-Star game, and received post-season All-Star honors in the I.L. ...Lemke batted .412 (7x17) from the right side after joining Atlanta ...Played errorless ball in 14 games at second with Atlanta.

1988: --Hit .270 with 16 homers, 80 RBI, 81 runs and 18 stolen bases in 143 games for AA

Atlanta Braves

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed thru '94
ACQUIRED: Was the Braves' 1st round selection in the 1986 June draft.

1993 SEASON: --Substantially helped the Braves both out of the bullpen and as a spot fifth starter ...Served as a reliever in his first 31 games through July 24, going 2-0 with a 2.97 ERA ...Made six starts between July 29 and September 15 (1-1, 4 ND, 3.00), including 6.0 no-hit innings vs. San Diego on September 9 ...After getting off to a slow start, he came on strong after May 8 (2-1, 2.48, 58.0 IP, 16 ER) ...The Braves were 4-2 in Mercker's starts ...Ladies hit just .200 (14-for-70) against him ...Inherited runners/scored: 20/7; First batters faced: 3x31; Saves/save opportunities: 0/2.

1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Led the staff by entering five of the six NLCS contests in relief, compiling a 1.80 ERA ...Pitched 2.0 scoreless innings while striking out two in Game 1 of the NLCS.

PRO CAREER: 1992:--Enjoyed longest shutout string by a Braves' reliever, working 25.0 scoreless frames over 22 games from May 23 to July 27 ...Allowed nine earned runs over first 16.0 innings pitched (5.06 ERA in 8 games through May 6), then pitched shutout ball in 26 of next 27 outings (3-0, 0.27 ERA, 1ER in 33.2IP) ...Had longest stint for a Braves' reliever (4.0IP) in Atlanta's 4-3, 16-inning loss at Pittsburgh on May 6 ...Held opponents to a .207 average ...Saw ERA climb from 1.81 in July to season-ending 3.42 after allowing 16 earned runs over final 17.0 innings ...Sidelined from September 10-29 with sore right rib cage ...Inherited runners/scored: 22/9; First batters faced: 7x44; Saves/save opportunities: 6x10.

1992 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:--Tossed 3.0 scoreless innings in two NLCS games ...Sustained a rib injury following Game 7 of NLCS and was replaced on the World Series roster by David Nied.

1991:-- Teamed with Mike Stanton to give Braves arguably the two top lefty set-up men in the majors ...Appeared in 46 games in relief, going 4-3 with 4 saves and a 2.50 ERA ...Came out of bullpen to fill fifth starter's role for four outings in September, winning his only decision and spinning a 2.79 ERA (6 ER in 19.1 IP) ...Entered the history books along with Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 when the three hurled a combined no-hitter over the Padres ...Represented the first combined no-hitter in N.L. history, and the Braves' first no-hitter since Phil Niekro stopped San Diego in 1973 ...Permitted only five earned runs in 32.1 innings pitched (1.39 ERA) April 19-July 7 ...Placed on 15-day D.L. on August 9 (strained right side muscle) ...Did not give up an earned run in last five relief appearances of season (5.1 IP) after return from D.L. ...Saved six games in eight opportunities.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:--Suffered loss in only LCS appearance in Game 4 ...In Game 3 of Series, did not allow a run in 12th inning after inheriting first and third and one out situation with score tied at 3-3 ...Mercker then struck out only batter faced, Kent Hrbek.

1990:--Compiled solid rookie season after recall from AAA Richmond on June 28 ...Earned first M.L. win on July 7 vs. New York, and nailed down first M.L. save July 17 vs. Philadelphia ...Went 4-1 with one save in a seven-game stretch July 7-24, before dropping final six decisions ...Allowed only six ER in first 28.0 IP (1.93 ERA in 18 games through August 15) ...Reeled off four saves in five appearances August 22-September 4 and, overall, recorded seven saves in 10 opportunities.

1989:--Voted second-best prospect and top pitcher in the International League after impressive first season at AAA Richmond ...Led the I.L. in strikeouts (144) while allowing only 107 hits in 168.2 innings pitched ...Named to AAA All-Star team ...Promoted to Atlanta on September 6, and made M.L. debut on September 22, vs. Cincinnati (2.0IP, 4H, 3ER).

1988:--Shared Pitcher-of-the-Year honors in Carolina League, where he was 11-4 with a 2.68 ERA for A Durham ...Represented Durham in the All-Star Game ...His 159 strikeouts (in 127.2 IP) were 3rd and his six complete games were T6th in league ...Continued his strikeout and hits-per-inning success at Greenville (60 K, 36H, 48.1IP) ...Won the second annual Phil Niekro Award as the outstanding pitcher in Braves' minor league system.

1987:--Missed nearly the whole season after suffering elbow injury in April and undergoing surgery in May.

ACQUIRED: Acquired by the Braves from the Tigers in exchange for Doyle Alexander on August 12, 1987.

1993 SEASON: --Matched his career high in wins with 15, and ranked second in the NL with 208 strikeouts ...Became the first Braves' pitcher to register consecutive 200+ strikeout seasons since Phil Niekro (1977-79) ...Moved into second place on the all-time Atlanta strikeout list with 946, behind Phil Niekro's 2,855 ...Fanned a season-high 12 batters vs. Los Angeles June 6 ...His victory on September 21 in Montreal gave the Braves four 15-game winners (Tom Glavine 22, Greg Maddux 20, Steve Avery 18, John Smoltz 15) for the first time this century ...Last two staffs to perform the feat were the 1989 A's and 1986 Mets ...The Braves scored just 24 runs in his 11 losses (2.2 runs/gm), eight of those 24 coming in one game ...Right-handed batters hit just .199 (89x447) against him ...The Braves were 18-17 in his 35 starts ...Was selected to his second consecutive All-Star team and third overall ...Also, ranked second in the league with 243.2 innings pitched, and tied for third with a .230 opponents batting average against.

1993 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Smoltz lost for the first time in six post-season decisions, despite registering 10 strikeouts in the Braves' 2-1 loss in Game 4 of NLCS ...Set a new NLCS record with 44 career strikeouts, passing Steve Carlton's mark of 39.

PRO CAREER 1992: --Led NL pitchers with 215 strikeouts, joining Phil Niekro (1977) as the only pitchers in Atlanta history to take NL strikeout honors ...His 15 wins and three shutouts also represented career highs ...In his 10th start on May 24 at Montreal, Smoltz tied a franchise record for a nine-inning game with 15 strikeouts, leading Atlanta to a 2-1 victory ...Denny Lemaster had held the Atlanta mark with 14 strikeouts on August 14, 1966 vs. Philadelphia ...Smoltz tied Warren Spahn's record of 15 whiffs set September 16, 1960, also vs. the Phillies ...The 15 strikeouts by Smoltz were also an NL high in 1992 ...Compiled longest shutout string by an NL pitcher in 1992, working 29.0 scoreless innings from July 5-22 ...Went 11-2 with a 1.82 ERA from May 24 to August 6 (24 earned runs in 118.2IP) over 15 starts ...Lowered his season ERA from 3.94 to 2.55 during that stretch ...Selected to the NL All-Star team for second time in his career ...Belted second Major League homer on April 18 at Los Angeles ...Ranked 3rd in the NL with 246.2 IP, T4th with 9 complete games, T8th with 3 shutouts, T7th with 15 wins and 6th in OPP batting average at .224.

1992 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Was named MVP of NLCS after going 2-0 with one no-decision and a 2.66 ERA ...Gained victories in Game 1 (8.0 IP, 4H, 1R, 1ER, 3BB, 6K) and Game 4 (6.1 IP, 6H, 4R, 3ER, 5BB, 9K) ...Kept Braves within striking distance in Game 7 (6.0 IP, 4H, 2R, 2ER, 2BB, 4K) ...Smoltz's 4-0 lifetime mark is the best undefeated record in NLCS history ...Went 1-0 in two World Series starts with a 2.70 ERA ...Received a no-decision in Game 2 (7.1 IP, 8H, 3R, 2ER, 3BB, 8K), while beating Toronto in Game 5 (6.0 IP, 5H, 2R, 2ER, 4BB, 4K).

1991: --Tale of two seasons for Smoltz, who staggered through a 2-11 first half with a 5.16 ERA ...Lasted 8+ innings only twice in those 18 starts ...Turned around the second half, ripping off a 12-2 mark with a 2.62 ERA ...Most significant victory came on October 5, when the Braves clinched the N.L. West Division championship against the Houston Astros, while the Dodgers lost to the Giants ...Smoltz went the distance in the clincher, allowing only 2 earned runs ...Nearly untouchable from August on, going 8-1 with a 1.49 ERA in his final 13 starts ...Did not give up a gopher ball after July 31 vs. Pittsburgh (13 games, 96.1 IP) ...Won his final 6 decisions from August 20 through end of regular season, with a stellar 1.62 ERA (13 ER in 72.1 IP) ...Braves went 3-15 in Smoltz's first 18 starts; in his last 18 starts the club went 15-3 ...Finished T2nd with 36 starts, T7th with five complete games and T9th with 229.2 innings pitched.

1991 POST-SEASON HIGHLIGHTS: --Continued second-half surge with two wins in NLCS vs. Pirates ...Was the benefactor in Braves' 10-3 rout in Game 3 (6.1 IP, 8 H, 3 R, 3 ER, 2 BB, 7 K) ...Fired his first shutout of campaign in pennant-clinching 4-0 triumph over the Pirates in Game 7 at Pittsburgh (9.0 IP, 6 H, 1 BB, 8 K) ...Received no-decision in Game 3 of the World Series, (7.0 IP, 7 H, 2 R, 2 ER, 0 BB, 7 K) ...Stopped the Twins in Game 7, hurling 7.1 scoreless innings, but received no decision in Braves' 1-0 loss in 10 innings (7.1 IP, 6 H, 0 R, 1 BB, 4 K) ...Compiled a 1.26 ERA in two starts (2 ER in 14.1 IP) ...Ended post-season with ERA of 1.52 in four starts (5

Playoffs

*Winners of each division and a wild-card team from A.L. and N.L. will play best-of-five series (two in each league) beginning October 4.

*Wild-card entrant will be second-place team with best record and will play team with best record with home-field advantage, unless that team is in same division. If that happens, MLB will determine seeding.

*Leagues will determine in advance which two divisions get home-field advantage, which will be for Games 3, 4 and 5.

*Two winners from each league will advance to best-of-seven League Championship Series.

1994 Braves Player Development and Scouting

Rod Gilbreath

Assistant Director of Player Development

Rod Gilbreath, an Atlanta infielder in the mid 1970's and Assistant Director of Scouting from 1985 through 1990, was named the Braves' Assistant Director of Player Development prior to the 1991 season.

A third round pick of the Braves in the 1970 June draft, Gilbreath started his pro career at Twin Falls that year. He was selected the Western Carolina League's Most Valuable Player while at Greenwood in 1971 and made it to Atlanta for part of the 1972 season. He hit .248 with 14 homers and 125 RBI in a seven-year Major League career.

Signed by Pittsburgh as a free agent, he finished his playing career with Portland in 1979 and 1980.

Gilbreath joined the Braves as a scout in the fall of 1982 and three years later became Assistant Director of Scouting. He managed the Braves' rookie farm club at Idaho Falls in 1986 and 1987, earning Pioneer League Manager-of-the-Year honors his first season there.

He and his wife, Donna, have two sons: Brian (17) and Clint (13) and reside in Stone Mountain, GA.

Don Mitchell

Assistant Director of Scouting

Don Mitchell, originally hired by the Braves in November of 1992 as a National Supervisor, was named the club's Assistant Director of Scouting on December 1, 1993.

Signed as a free agent by the Cincinnati Reds' organization, Mitchell spent three seasons in the club's farm system before being named an area supervisor for the Reds in 1986.

In 1989, Mitchell was named Midwest Regional Supervisor for the Cleveland Indians and joined the Pirates' organization in 1991 as Eastern Regional Supervisor before joining the Braves.

Mitchell, a 34-year old native of Paducah, KY, attended Paducah Community College before graduating from the University of Tennessee at Martin in 1981, where he earned a degree in civil engineering while playing third base for the baseball team.

He and his wife, Michelle, have three daughters: Jennifer, Julie and Jamie, and reside in Marietta, GA.

Scott Proefrock

Scouting and Player Development Assistant

Scott Proefrock was named Scouting and Player Development Assistant in December of 1993.

He joined the Braves as the Assistant Director of Scouting on December 3, 1990. He came to Atlanta from the Pittsburgh Pirates, where he had been an assistant for baseball operations the previous year. He began his professional baseball career when he was named the Pirates' Director of Management Information Systems in November of 1987.

Proefrock, a 34-year-old native of Dayton, Ohio, earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from William & Mary in 1982 and a master's in sports management from the University of Massachusetts in 1987.

He and his wife, KK, reside in Atlanta, GA.

Bobby Dews

Minor League Field Coordinator

Bobby Dews, named minor league field coordinator before the 1991 season, has been with the Braves as a manager, coach, instructor or administrator since 1975.

Dews, who turns 54 on March 23, is responsible for supervising instruction throughout the Braves' minor league system.

Dews succeeded Hank Aaron as the Braves' Director of Player Development in December of 1989, and had previously been the Assistant Director of Player Development for two years. He had served as a roving minor league instructor in 1986 and 1987.

Appointed manager of Class A Greenwood of the Western Carolinas League in 1975, Dews spent eight of the next 11 years managing in the Braves' farm system, guiding five of his clubs to their respective playoffs. The AA Savannah Braves, who won the Southern League championship in 1978, earned Dews Manager-of-the-Year honors.

Dews, a coach with the major league Braves from 1979-1981 and again in 1985, was a shortstop in the St. Louis Cardinals' organization from 1960 through part of 1970. Advancing as far as AAA, Dews' best season was in 1964, when he hit .277 with 40 RBI for Tulsa of the AA Texas League.

A native of Clinton, Iowa, Dews graduated from Edison (GA) High School and attended Georgia Tech.

Dews and his wife, the former Glenda Bolin, live in Albany, GA. They have one daughter, Dana (14).

The Braves in the World Series

1914 -- Boston 4 games, Philadelphia 0

Manager George Stallings' "Miracle Braves", who climbed out of the cellar in July to win the pennant, swept Connie Mack's great Philadelphia Athletics in four games. The Braves were built around the pitching trio of Dick Rudolph, Bill James and George Tyler and the second base combination of Johnny Evers and Rabbit Maranville. Catcher Hank Gowdy, who batted .243 for the season, had a .545 average for the Series, including a homer, triple, three doubles and a single.

1948 -- Cleveland 4 games, Boston 2

The Braves, under Billy Southworth, won their first National League pennant in 34 years, but lost the Series to Lou Boudreau and the Indians. Gene Bearden, a Navy veteran of World War II, was Cleveland's pitching hero. Bob Feller allowed Boston only two hits in the opening game but lost it to Johnny Sain, 1-0. Boston's only other victory was in the fifth game, 11-5, as Bob Elliott smashed successive homers off Feller.

1957 -- Milwaukee 4 games, New York 3

Sensational Lew Burdette had three victories and pitched 24 consecutive scoreless innings to defeat a New York team that was making its eighth Series appearance in nine years under the leadership of Casey Stengel. Warren Spahn was the winning pitcher in Milwaukee's other victory. Eddie Mathews' tenth-inning homer won the fourth game after the famous Nippy Jones shoe polish incident. Burdette started the seventh and final game after Spahn was felled by the flu, and with only two days rest, pitched a 5-0 shutout.

1958 -- New York 4 games, Milwaukee 3

The Yankees, gaining revenge for their defeat the previous year, carried the Series to seven games and then won one of their greatest triumphs in Series play. They became only the second team in history to come from a three-games-to-one deficit and win the Fall Classic. Hank Bauer led the Yankees with 10 hits and eight RBI, while pitcher Bob Turley won the fifth game, saved the sixth and won the seventh. Warren Spahn won two and Lew Burdette one for the Braves.

1991 -- Minnesota 4 games, Atlanta 3

After completing their unprecedented ascents from last place in 1990 to the World Series in 1991, the Braves and Twins staged a Fall Classic epic of the first order. Four games were decided on the final pitch, five in the last inning and five by one run, with three games going into extra innings. The Twins captured the first two contests at Minnesota before the Braves roared back by sweeping all three games in Atlanta. Braves' consensus MVP Mark Lemke was the catalyst, as he tripled in the game-winning run in Game 3, scored the game-winner in Game 4 and tripled twice more in Game 5 on the way to a .417 Series batting average. Lonnie Smith also became the first player in N.L. Series history to homer in three straight games. The Braves returned to Minnesota needing just one more win, but Kirby Puckett and MVP Jack Morris led the Twins to consecutive wins and the championship.

1992 -- Toronto 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves literally became "America's Team" as they met the Toronto Blue Jays in the first International World Series, with the Jays claiming the championship in six games. Atlanta suffered four one-run defeats, giving the Braves seven consecutive one-run losses in World Series play (last three setbacks to Twins in 1991 were also by one run). The Braves began the Series in positive fashion, beating '91 Series nemesis Jack Morris in the opener, 3-1, behind Damon Berryhill's 6th-inning, three-run homer and complete game, four-hitter by Tom Glavine. The Jays saw the momentum of their comeback win carry over to Toronto, limiting the Braves to a total of three runs over Games 3&4, giving the Jays a commanding three-games-to-one lead. The Series returned to Atlanta, and the Braves were able to tie Game 6 in the bottom of the 9th on an Otis Nixon single, but the Jays prevailed, 4-3 in 11 innings, leaving the Braves as runners-up for the second consecutive year. Deion Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 (8x15) with five stolen bases.

The Braves in the Championship Series

1969 -- New York 3 games, Atlanta 0

Atlanta became the first Western Division champion by winning 77 percent of its games in September, finishing the year with a 93-69 record. New York then swept the three-game Championship Series from the Braves.

1982 -- St. Louis 3 games, Atlanta 0

First-year manager Joe Torre got the Braves off to a Major League record 13 consecutive wins at the start of the season en route to the club's first divisional title in 13 years. St. Louis swept the Braves in the Championship Series as Atlanta was outscored 17-5 in the three games.

1991 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Led by the sensational pitching of Steve Avery and John Smoltz, Atlanta overcame a three-games-to-two deficit on the road and won its first-ever National League pennant. Avery landed MVP honors after setting an NLCS record with 16.1 scoreless innings while winning 1-0 decisions in Games Two and Six; Smoltz fired a six-hit shutout in Game Seven in the Braves' 4-0 clincher. In the best pitching exhibition ever seen in NLCS play, Braves' hurlers held the Pirates scoreless the last 22 innings of the series, and the last 27 innings at Pittsburgh, on the way to a 1.57 ERA against the league's top offense.

1992 -- Atlanta 4 games, Pittsburgh 3

Francisco Cabrera's pinch-hit, two-out single in the bottom of the 9th scored the tying and winning runs in the Braves' miraculous 3-2 win over Pittsburgh in Game 7. NLCS MVP John Smoltz allowed one run on four hits over 8.0 innings in a 5-1 Braves win in the opener, and Ron Gant's grand slam highlighted a 13-5 pounding of the Bucs in Game 2. The Pirates captured Game 3, 3-2 behind Tim Wakefield's knuckleball, but Smoltz and the Braves won Game 4, 6-4. Pittsburgh evened the playoffs at three games each with 7-1 and 13-4 wins in the next two games, respectively, to set the stage for the Game 7 drama. With their improbable 9th-inning comeback, climaxed by Cabrera's hit and Sid Bream's slide home, the Braves made history, becoming the first Major League team to win a decisive post-season game while trailing before the final pitch.

1993 -- Philadelphia 4 games, Atlanta 2

The Braves saw their two-year reign as National League champions come to an end when the Phillies prevailed in a six-game series. Atlanta rebounded from losing the opener and scored 23 runs over the next two games to take a two-games-to-one advantage. Danny Jackson outdueled John Smoltz in Game 4, to even the series at two games each. In Game 5, the Braves scored three runs in the bottom of the ninth to tie the contest, but Phillies' outfielder Lenny Dykstra hit a 10th-inning homer, that gave the Phillies the victory and a one game lead as the series returned to Philadelphia. Atlanta's hopes for a seventh game were dashed in the first inning of Game 6, when Greg Maddux was hobbled after being struck by a Mickey Morandini line drive. The Phillies won the pennant with a 6-3 victory in Game 6. Fred McGriff led the Braves in defeat with a .435 batting average.

Braves Historical Highlights

Braves History

- 1901 - In the first year of so-called "modern" baseball, meaning the American League made its official major league entry, the Boston team finished fifth. They were led by Kid Nichols, who won 20 games as a pitcher and also played the outfield and first base.
- 1902- Vic Willis and Togie Pittinger each won 27 games, but the club finished third.
- 1912- The team acquires the nickname "Braves" for the first time at the suggestion of Johnny Montgomery Ward. Before that, the team had been known as the Doves because of its owners, the Dovey brothers. It was also known as the Beaneaters and the Red Caps.
- 1914- The Braves completed their miracle finish by coming from last on July 18 to win the N.L. pennant. They won 34 of 44 games in their drive to the top and finished an astonishing 10.5 games in front of the second place Giants. The Braves then swept four from heavily favored Philadelphia to win the World Series. Johnny Evers won the MVP award.
- 1928- Rogers Hornsby, playing for his third team in three years, hit .387 for the Braves and easily won the N.L. batting title.
- 1935- Babe Ruth finished his career in a Braves uniform. Ruth homered in his first N.L. at-bat, off Carl Hubbell, but batted only .181 and, after seven more homers for a career total of 714, removed himself from the lineup in June and officially retired as a player.
- 1936- The Braves' name was changed to the Bees as a result of a fan poll. Five years later the club readopted the nickname of the Braves.
- 1938- Casey Stengel managed his first of six Braves teams.
- 1947- Johnny Sain and Warren Spahn each won 21 games for the third-place Braves. The team exceeded one million in attendance (1,277,361) for the first time. Bob Elliott won MVP.
- 1948- This is the year that produced the phrase "Spahn and Sain and two days of rain" as Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain combined for 39 wins. Sain had a league-high 24 as the Braves won the pennant but lost to Cleveland in the World Series. Al Dark batted .322 to lead the Braves in the regular season while winning the Rookie-of-the-Year award.
- 1950- Centerfielder Sam Jethroe won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.
- 1952- Eddie Mathews became the first rookie in major league history to hit 3 home runs in a game, accomplishing it on September 27.
- 1953- The Braves played their first season in Milwaukee, attracting a National League-record 1,826,297 fans, and finished second. Eddie Mathews won the home run title with 47 and Warren Spahn led the league in pitching victories with 23.
- 1954- Bobby Thomson suffered a broken ankle in spring training and forced the Braves to try a young infielder by the name of Hank Aaron in the outfield. Aaron batted .280 with 13 homers as the Braves finished third.
- 1956- Hank Aaron won the batting title with a .328 average, but the Braves lost the pennant to the Dodgers on the final day of the season.
- 1957- The Braves won the pennant and World Series. Hank Aaron was the league MVP, leading the N.L. in homers and RBI, but it was late-season call-ups Wes Covington and Bob "Hurricane" Hazle who sparked the Braves. Replacing injured players, Covington hit 21 homers and Hazle batted .403 down the stretch. Aaron batted .393 and Lew Burdette won three games as the Braves beat the Yankees in the Series. Spahn won the Cy Young Award.
- 1958- In the year the Dodgers and Giants went West, the pennant stayed in Milwaukee. Mathews and Aaron combined for 61 homers, Spahn and Burdette for 42 pitching victories to lead the way. However, the Yankees won the World Series, four games to three.

- 1959- It required a post-season playoff for the Los Angeles Dodgers to supplant the Braves as N.L. champs. Mathews led the league in homers with 46, Aaron in hitting with a .355 average. Burdette and Spahn won 21 games each. This also was the year Pittsburgh's Harvey Haddix pitched 12 perfect innings against the Braves only to lose the game on a homer by Joe Adcock in the 13th.
- 1960- Aaron led the league in RBI with 126 and Spahn in victories with 21 but the Braves finished second to Pittsburgh.
- 1961- Spahn again led the league in wins with 21, but the Braves fell to fourth place in the standings.
- 1963- Aaron just missed the triple crown, leading the league in homers with 44 and RBI with 130. Tommy Davis of the Dodgers won the batting title with a .326 average to Aaron's .319.
- 1964- The Braves finished fifth in spite of having five players hit 20 homers or more; Aaron (24), Mathews (23), Rico Carty (22), Denis Menke (20) and Joe Torre (20).
- 1965- The Braves' move to Atlanta was halted by a court order, forcing a lame duck season in Milwaukee. The Braves led the league with 196 homers.
- 1966- The Braves and Pirates debuted Major League baseball's first season in Atlanta on April 12, with Pittsburgh winning, 3-2, in 13 innings. Atlanta was fifth in its initial season, but Aaron hit 44 homers and had 127 RBI to lead the league in those departments.
- 1967- Aaron hit 39 homers to again lead the league, but the Braves fell to seventh in the league standings.
- 1968- In the year of the pitcher, Aaron still managed 29 homers, and the Braves climbed to fifth in the league standings.
- 1969- The Braves marked the first year of division play by winning the West. Phil Niekro won 23 games, while Aaron slugged 44 homers and knocked in 97 runs. However, the Braves lost to the Miracle Mets in the playoffs, three games to none.
- 1970- Rico Carty won the batting title with a .366 average, and Hank Aaron, in addition to collecting 38 homers, realized a milestone by getting his 3,000th career hit. But the Braves dropped to fifth in the N.L. West.
- 1971- Aaron hit his 600th career homer, this one in Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium off the Giants' Gaylord Perry. After hitting an Atlanta rookie record 33 homers, Earl Williams won BBWAA Rookie-of-the-Year honors.
- 1972- Manager Luman Harris was replaced during the season by all-time Braves third baseman Eddie Mathews. The team finished fourth. The Braves also hosted the All-Star Game in Atlanta for the first time.
- 1973- The Braves produced three hitters who belted 40 or more home runs, Dave Johnson (43), Darrell Evans (41) and Hank Aaron (40). Aaron climbed to within one homer of tying Babe Ruth for the all-time career record of 714, while Johnson's total set a Major League record for second basemen. Phil Niekro no-hit the Padres, winning 9-0. Lack of pitching dropped the Braves into fifth place in the standings.
- 1974- Hank Aaron tied Babe Ruth the first time he swung the bat, connecting on April 4, off Cincinnati's Jack Billingham. Four days later he broke the record with No. 715 against Dodgers' lefty Al Downing. Ralph Garr led the league in hitting with a .353 average, and Buzz Capra was the ERA leader with his 2.28 mark.
- 1975- The season was comparatively uneventful, but in January of the off-season it became official that television magnate Ted Turner purchased the club.
- 1976- The Braves shook the baseball world by signing pitcher Andy Messersmith, who during the off-season won his free agency in court.
- 1977- Ted Turner decided to become team manager during a 17-game losing streak. He lost to Pittsburgh, 2-1 at the Pirates' Three Rivers Stadium. Turner's tenure in the dugout lasted only one game as Commissioner Bowie Kuhn banished him upstairs.

Braves Historical Highlights, (Continued)

- 1978- Larry McWilliams and Gene Garber stopped Pete Rose's hitting streak at 44 games. Bob Horner, the nation's No. 1 draft choice, signed with the Braves and made the jump from the Arizona State campus to the majors and won the Rookie-of-the-Year award.
- 1979- Phil Niekro achieved his 200th career victory by beating the Pirates at Pittsburgh. Niekro won 21 games.
- 1980- Manager Bobby Cox moved Dale Murphy to the outfield, and Murphy responded with 33 homers, 89 RBI.
- 1981- A players' strike spoiled the season, costing the Major Leagues a total of 713 games. Former Braves star Hank Aaron was elected to the Hall of Fame.
- 1982- Dale Murphy, winning the first of two consecutive MVP awards, paced the Braves to a West Division title by hitting 36 homers and knocking in 109 runs. The Braves set a Major League record at the time by winning their first 13 games of the year. However, they lost to the Cardinals in the League Championship Series.
- 1983- Murphy won the MVP award again, but the Braves finished second, three games back. They attracted an Atlanta-record 2,119,935 fans.
- 1984- Murphy hit 36 homers for the third straight year to tie Mike Schmidt for the league lead.
- 1985- Rick Mahler reeled off victories in his first seven starts and Dale Murphy enjoyed another banner season with 37 homers, but the club finished fifth in the N.L. West.
- 1986- Dale Murphy's consecutive-game streak came to an end July 9th at 740 games. Bob Horner hit four homers in an 11-8 loss to Montreal, July 6.
- 1987- Though the team finished with a 69-92 record, the Braves posted their best offensive numbers in 14 seasons, paced by Dale Murphy's .295 average, 105 RBI and career-high 44 homers.
- 1988- Russ Nixon took over as manager of the Braves May 23 as the club struggled to a 12-27 record under Chuck Tanner. First baseman Gerald Perry finished with a .300 batting average (5th in N.L.) and a team-high 29 stolen bases.
- 1989- The Braves finished at 63-97, a nine-game improvement over the previous season. Smith shook off the effects of an ankle injury to hit .315 (third in the N.L.) with career highs in HR (21) and RBI (79). His performance earned him league Comeback-Player-of-the-Year honors.
- 1990- The Braves created shock waves August 4 when they traded Dale Murphy, one of the most respected athletes in Atlanta history, to the Philadelphia Phillies for Jeff Parrett, Jim Vatcher and Victor Rosario. The move enabled David Justice to return to right field and he responded with 20 home runs and 50 RBI over the last two months. Justice wound up hitting .282 with 28 homers and 78 RBI, enough to earn him Rookie-of-the-Year accolades.
- 1991- The Braves made history by becoming the first team ever to reach the World Series just one season after having baseball's worst record. Although the team stumbled into the All-Star break 9.5 games behind the first-place Dodgers, they were able to slice seven games off the lead in the first 12 days after the break. What followed was a thrilling stretch drive during which the Braves and Dodgers were never separated by more than 2.5 games after August 10. Among many clutch performances were the N.L.'s first-ever combined no-hitter by Kent Mercker, Mark Wohlers and Alejandro Pena on September 11 vs. San Diego and David Justice's game-winning, two-run homer off Rob Dibble on October 1, capping a comeback from a 6-0, first-inning deficit. The Braves finally clinched the division title on October 5, after an eight-game winning streak, the first six coming on the road, to set Atlanta records of 94 wins (including a 55-28 mark in the second half) and 2,140,217 in attendance. Steve Avery was the MVP of the NLCS after tossing a record 16.1 consecutive scoreless innings to lead the Braves to a seven-game triumph. Mark Lemke then turned the World Series into a personal showcase by hitting .417 and helping push the Twins all the way to Game 7, a heartbreaking, 1-0 loss in 10 innings. Tom Glavine won the Cy Young Award; Terry Pendleton won the batting title and was named N.L. MVP; Bobby Cox became the BBWAA and AP N.L. Manager-of-the-Year; Schuerholz earned UPI N.L. Executive-of-the-Year honors; and BASEBALL AMERICA honored Atlanta by naming it the Organization-of-the-Year.
- 1992- Francisco Cabrera's 9th-inning, two-out, two-run, pinch-hit single and Sid Bream's photo finish slide at home plate gave Atlanta a stunning 3-2 triumph over the Pirates and sent the Braves to their second consecutive World Series. The Braves became the first NL team to win back-to-back pennants since the 1977-78 Dodgers, while setting a new franchise record with a major league-leading 98 victories. On May 27, the Braves resided in last place with a 20-27 mark, 7.0 games behind front-running San Francisco. The team then proceeded to rip off 21 wins in 24 games en route to finishing the season with an amazing 78-37 (.678) run over the duration of the campaign. Included in this blitz was a 13-game winning streak from July 8-25, which tied the franchise record set in 1982. The Braves finally moved into first place July 22, then were tied for the top spot on two occasions before gaining the lead for good on August 2. The Braves led the league in ERA (3.14) for the first time since 1958. For the second straight year, Tom Glavine won 20 games, including a 13-game winning streak, which established a modern day Braves' record. John Smoltz won a career-high 15 games, and became the first Braves' hurler to lead the NL in strikeouts (215) since Phil Niekro in 1977. Pendleton produced another outstanding season, collecting a career-high 105 RBI while hitting .311. His 39 doubles set an Atlanta record and his 199 hits were tied for first in the loop. Atlanta then met Toronto in the first International World Series, with the Blue Jays prevailing in six games. Sanders starred for the Braves in defeat, hitting .533 with five stolen bases. Nonetheless, the Braves repeated as league champions for the first time since 1957-58.

1993- After one of the most pulsating stretch runs in baseball history, the Braves became the first team to win the N.L. West for three consecutive years when they captured the division over the Giants on the season's final day. The Braves set a franchise record with 104 victories, leading the majors in wins for the second straight season. Atlanta played 54-19 ball (.740) after the All-Star break, the third-best second half in major league history, and overcame a 10-game deficit as of July 22. The surge coincided with the July acquisition of Fred McGriff from San Diego, with the Braves going 51-17 (.750) after McGriff joined the lineup. McGriff's first game as a Brave on July 20 will always be remembered in Atlanta as the night of the pre-game press box fire at Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium; McGriff's homer in the contest ignited the Braves from a 5-0 deficit to an 8-5 win over the Cardinals. McGriff (37, 101) joined David Justice (40, 120) and Ron Gant (36, 117) to give the Braves the first trio of 100+ RBI men in the N.L. since the Braves' 1970 lineup of Aaron, Cepeda and Carty. The Braves led the league in homers (168) and ERA (3.14) for the second straight season, the first team to do so in consecutive years since the 1977-78 Dodgers. Atlanta's "Fab Four" starting rotation lived up to expectations, with Greg Maddux winning his second consecutive Cy Young Award after posting a 20-10 mark with a 2.36 ERA. Tom Glavine (22-6, 3.20 ERA) became the first N.L. pitcher to win 20+ games for three straight years since Ferguson Jenkins hurled six consecutive 20+ win seasons from 1967-72. Steve Avery (18-6, 2.94 ERA) matched his career-high in victories, and John Smoltz (15-11, 3.62 ERA) gave the Braves four 15-game winners for the first time this century. Jeff Blauser (.305) became the first Brave shortstop to hit over .300 since Alvin Dark in 1948, and set a franchise mark for runs scored (110) by a shortstop. Terry Pendleton recovered from a slow start to knock in 84 runs, while Mike Stanton (27 saves), Rookie-of-the-Year runner-up Greg McMichael (2-3, 2.06 ERA, 19 saves) and Steve Bedrosian (1.63 ERA) led the relief corps. Despite the loss to the Phillies in the NLCS, the Braves could point to their 104 wins, third consecutive division title, their top-ranked minor league system and franchise record attendance of 3,884,720 as evidence of their standing as one of the model organizations in the majors.

Braves Best Pitching Starts

In research dating back to 1900, Elias Sports Bureau found the following Braves who had gotten off to successful starts at the beginning of their seasons.

Warren Spahn-	8-0 in 1947, in 8 starts plus a no-decision in relief during that stretch
Jim Wilson-	8-0 in 1954, in 8 consecutive starts.
Ed Brandt-	8-0 in 1931, in consecutive starts, all complete games.
Larry McWilliams-	7-0 in 1978 for best Atlanta start. He was not called up from minors until July 17, so this streak was not at start of season but was a win streak that began the season for McWilliams.
Rick Mahler-	7-0 in 1985, in 7 consecutive starts.
Pete Smith	7-0 in 1992, in 11 starts.
Tom Glavine-	7-0 in 1993, in 10 starts.
George Stone-	6-0 in 1969, in 13 games with only 3 wins as a starter.
Pascual Perez-	5-0 in 1983, in consecutive starts.
Tom Glavine-	5-0 in 1989, in 7 starts.

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium Information

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium

Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium is located one mile south of midtown Atlanta at the junction of interstate highways 20, 75 and 85. The park was completed in 20 months, eight for design and 12 for construction. Ground was broken on April 15, 1964, and the first game was played on April 9, 1965, when Milwaukee defeated Detroit, 6-3 in an exhibition game before the 1965 regular season. Approximate cost of the stadium was $18 million. Architects were two Atlanta firms: Heery and Heery and Finch, Alexander, Barnes, Rothschild and Paschal. General contractor was the Thompson and Street Company of Charlotte, NC, and Atlanta.

1994 Braves Radio / TV

Braves Radio and Television

The Atlanta Braves, TBS, SportSouth and News Radio WGST 640 AM and 105.7 FM and FM 95 WPCB join together again in 1994 to provide Braves fans with the best in sports broadcasting. TBS, and its predecessor, WTCG, has been carrying Braves games since 1973. TBS reaches more than 62 million homes. SportSouth, now in 3.8 million homes, has broadcast Braves games on a southeastern regional basis the past three seasons. NewsRadio WGST 640 AM and 105.7 FM and FM 95 WPCB enter their third year as anchors for the Braves radio network of almost 200 affiliates in eight states.

1994 Braves Broadcasters

Skip Caray

The 1994 season marks Skip Caray's his 19th behind the microphone for TBS and the Braves.

Caray joined Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. (TBS) in 1972 as the voice of the NBA Atlanta Hawks and was added to Braves' telecasts in 1976.

Caray and his son, Chip, made broadcast history when they joined Skip's dad, Harry, and became the first three-generation family to announce a major league game, when they worked a Braves-Cubs contest in May of 1991.

Caray's radio call of Francisco Cabrera's pennant-winning hit driving home Sid Bream in the Seventh Game of the 1992 National League Championship Series will go down as one of the most memorable in Atlanta history.

Caray was also involved in the NFL as a play-by-play announcer for the first two season (1990-1991) of TNT's coverage of Sunday Night football and served as play-by-play announcer for baseball on TBS' coverage of the 1990 Goodwill Games. Caray also called Atlanta Hawks basketball on TBS for the 1990-91 and 1991-92 season. He is a six-time winner of the Georgia Sportscaster of the Year award.

Skip and his wife, Paula, live in Atlanta. Their children include Chip, Cindy, Shayelyn and Josh.

Pete Van Wieren

Pete Van Wieren, who won Georgia Broadcaster-of-the-Year honors in 1993 for the 6th consecutive year, is in his 19th season as a voice of the Braves. Van Wieren has now earned that prestigious award seven times, the first having come in 1980. He began his Major League broadcasting career with the Braves in 1976 after working as a play-by-play man for the Tidewater Tides of the International League for two years. He has also broadcast hockey, college and professional basketball and college and professional football, currently spending his baseball off-seasons announcing Atlanta Hawks games.

Pete and his wife, Elaine, live in Tucker, GA. They have two children, Steven and Jon.

Joe Simpson

Joe Simpson returns for his third season as a Braves' announcer after serving as an analyst for the Seattle Mariners telecast from 1987-1991.

An All-American outfielder / first baseman at the University of Oklahoma, Simpson went on to play professionally for 11 seasons. He began his career in 1973 as a third round draft pick of the Los Angeles Dodgers. After several brief stints with the parent club, Simpson joined the Seattle Mariners prior to the start of the 1979 season. He remained in the majors with the Mariners until the 1983 season, when he was traded to the Royals.

Joe and his wife, Kathy, live in Marietta, Ga. They have two children, Meg and Gabe.

Don Sutton

Don Sutton is a member of the telecast team for TBS Sports' coverage of Atlanta Braves baseball and serves as an analyst on TBS' coverage of professional golf. He joined Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. during the Braves' 1989 season.

Sutton served as an on-course reporter for TBS' coverage of the United Hawaiian Open and the PGA Grand Slam of Golf tournaments in 1993.

Sutton is a four-time National League All-Star and one of Major League Baseball's all-time winningest pitchers.

A 23-year veteran of the Major Leagues, Sutton is one of only 20 pitchers in Major League history to win 300 games (324). He pitched for the Dodgers, Astros, Brewers, Athletics and Angels between 1966 and 1988.

Sutton's network broadcasting experience includes pre and post-game analysis for NBC's 1987 League Championship series coverage. He has also served as a sportscaster for KNBC in Los Angeles.

Don and his wife, Mary, live in Alpharetta, GA. Don has two children, Daron and Staci.

1994 SportSouth Broadcasters

Ernie Johnson, Sr.

Ernie Johnson, Sr., is the voice of the Atlanta Braves for SportSouth and has been with the Braves for more than 47 years. He was joined in the booth for the 1993 season by his son, Ernie, Jr., who is host of TNT's NBA and NFL studio shows.

Johnson began with the Braves as a pitcher when the team was based in Boston and moved with them to Milwaukee. He pitched eight years in the major leagues, including the 1957 season in which the Braves won the World Series. Johnson made three appearances in that series. In 1960, Johnson moved into the front office as Public Relations Director. He joined the broadcast team in 1962, assuming play-by-play duties in 1966 when the club moved to Atlanta.

Johnson began his association with TBS Sports in 1972 when Braves games first appeared on the network. In 1974, Johnson was named director of broadcasting for the club. He won the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Association's Georgia Sportcaster of the Year Award in 1977 and 1983. In 1989, Johnson retired from his full-time position with the Braves on TBS, but continues his association with the team as play-by-play announcer on SportSouth.

Ernie and his wife, Lois, live in Alpharetta, GA. Their children include Dawn, Chris and Ernie, Jr.

Ernie Johnson, Jr.

Ernie Johnson, Jr., who served as co-host of the 1993 U.S. Olympic Festival on TNT, is studio host for TNT's coverage of NFL football and NBA basketball and in 1993, joined his dad (Ernie, Sr.) as the play-by-play voice for SportSouth's coverage of the Atlanta Braves. He served as play-by-play announcer of speed skating for TNT's coverage of the 1992 Winter Olympics.

Johnson has hosted TNT's NBA and NFL studio shows since 1990. He co-hosted along with Nick Charles and Nicole Watson, TNT's coverage of the 1991 Pan American Games from Havana, Cuba.

Johnson came to TBS Sports from WSB-TV, Atlanta, where he served as weekend sports anchor and reporter from 1983-89. He began his career while attending the University of Georgia as news and sports director for WAGQ-FM, Athens, GA (1977-78). Following graduation, Johnson joined WMAZ-TV, Macon, GA, as news anchor (1979-81). In 1981, he served as news reporter for WSPA-TV, Spartanburg, S.C.. He joined WSB-TV in 1982 as general assignment news reporter and was named week-end sports anchor and reporter in 1983.

Ernie and his wife, Cheryl, live in Suwanee, GA. They have four children: Eric, Maggie, Michael and Carmen.

Rules of Interest

Player Limits: Forty until Opening Day, when the number of players must be reduced to 25 until September 1, when it becomes 40 again.

Determining Batting Average: Divide the number of at-bats into the number of hits.

Determining an Earned Run Average: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine, divide the total by the number of innings pitched.

Determining Slugging Percentage: Divide the total bases of all hits by the total times at-bat (at-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitches, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

Determining Fielding Average: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

Determining the Percentage of Games Won and Lost: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

Determining On-Base Percentage: Add the total of hits, walks and hit by pitches and divide by the total of at-bats, walks, hit by pitches and sacrifice flies.

Determining the Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

Determining a Major League Year: A full year of service in the Major Leagues constitutes 172 days.

Consecutive Game Hitting Streaks: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

Consecutive Game Playing Streak: A consecutive-game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out.

Qualifying Marks: To qualify for the batting championship, a player must have a minimum of 502 plate appearances. To qualify for Earned Run Average leadership, a pitcher must have at least 162 innings pitched.

Doctored Bat: If a filled or "doctored" bat is used, the player is to be ejected from the game and suspended three days. Any balls hit by an illegal bat do not count. If the umpire sees the illegal bat before it is used, he issues a warning, but there is no penalty.

Relief Pitchers' Save Rule: A pitcher is credited with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions; 1) He's the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and 2) he's not the winning pitcher, and 3) he qualifies under one of the following conditions: a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or c) he pitches effectively for at least three innings.

Rookie Rule: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a Major League roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service or on the disabled list.)

Day / Night Game: Any game scheduled to start after 5:00 p.m. will be considered a night game. If a game is scheduled to start at or before 5:00 p.m. and is delayed by rain or for any other reason it shall still be considered a day game. However, both games of a two-night doubleheader shall be considered night games. When afternoon and night games are played on the same day and separate admissions are charged, they will be counted as one day game and one night game and will not be considered as a doubleheader.

Regulation Game: A regulation game consists of nine innings unless extended because of a tie score or shortened because 1) the home team needs none of its half of the ninth or only part of it; or 2) because the umpire-in-chief calls the game after five completed innings. A regulation game may be less than five innings if the home team is ahead after the top of the fifth, or takes the lead or ties the score while at bat in the fifth.

Tie Game: A regulation game that is called by the umpire-in-chief when both teams have the same number of runs is a tie game. Individual player performances are official and are entered in the records, but the game does not count in the league standings and may be re-scheduled at a later date.

Suspended Game: A game becomes a suspended game if it is terminated for any of the following reasons: 1) a curfew imposed by law; 2) a time limit permissible under league rules; 3) light failure or malfunction of a mechanical field device under control of the home club (including automatic tarpaulin or water removal equipment); 4) darkness because of any law, the lights may not be turned on. No game called because of a curfew or a time limit shall be a suspended game unless it has progressed far enough to have been a regulation game (see above). A game called under provision 3 or 4 shall be a suspended game at any time after it starts. Since 1980, if weather forces the termination of a legal game while an inning is in process, it will become a suspended game if either of the following two conditions exists: 1) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to tie the game and the home team has not scored, or 2) the visiting team has scored one or more runs to take the lead and the home team has not tied the score or taken the lead. If a legal game is tied when called because of weather and neither situation listed above prevails, it is a tie game and must be replayed in its entirety.

Suspended games shall be resumed at the exact point of suspension of the original game. If possible, it shall be resumed immediately preceding the next scheduled single game between the two clubs on the same ground.

A game called at the END of a completed inning AFTER NINE INNINGS for any reason shall be a SUSPENDED game. This rule became effective in 1969. Formerly, the game would have been declared a tie and replayed in its entirety at a later date.

Disabled Lists:

15-DAY DISABLED LIST: Minimum period of inactivity is fifteen (15) days. There is no limit on the number of players that may be placed on this list.

60-DAY DISABLED LIST: The minimum period of inactivity is sixty (60) days. Players on or transferred to this list after August 1 shall remain there for the balance of the regular season and post-season. This list may be used only when a club is at the maximum limit of forty (40) players.

MLB Waiver Rule

Baseball's waiver year runs from November 11 to November 10 with three waiver periods within each year.

First Waiver Period: November 11 to 30th day of subsequent regular season.

Second Waiver Period: 31st day of regular season to July 31.

Third Waiver Period: August 1 to November 10.

To make a trade with a National or American League Club, major league waivers are required only from August 1 until the day following the close of the regular season. Waivers are not required during any other time of year.

The contract of a player placed on waivers may be claimed by any other major league club. If a claim is made and the club requesting waivers does not withdraw the request, the contract shall be assigned to the claiming club. If more than one club in the same league files a claim, assignment shall be made to the claiming club of the lowest standing in the league. If claiming clubs are in different leagues, the preference for the waiver claim shall always go to clubs in the same league as the requesting club and to the claiming club of the lowest standing in that league.

Major League Waivers may be requested prior to 2:00 P.M. est., Monday through Friday (holidays excepted) and claims may be filed until 2:00 P.M. on the third business day following the date of the waiver request. If no claims are filed, the secured waivers are in effect through the close of the particular waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers may be requested at any time without restriction.

Special Waivers (Sept. 1 to 30th day of subsequent regular season) or Outright Waivers (31st day of regular season to Aug. 31) must be secured prior to making an outright assignment of a player contract to a National Association Club. If secured, Special Waivers are in effect for seven calendar days and Outright Waivers are in effect until the close of the waiver period.

Unconditional Release Waivers, Special Waivers and Outright Waivers are irrevocable and may not be withdrawn after they have been requested.

In some cases, Major League Waivers must be secured prior to the optional assignment of a player contract to the National Association. Generally, waivers are required as of the third anniversary of the date the player first reported for major league service, less one year for each option charged to the player at the time he first reported.

Medical Glossary

AC Joint (Acromioclavicular joint): Joint of the shoulder where acromion process of the scapula and the distal end of the clavicle meet; most shoulder separations occur at this point.

Abduct: Movement of any extremity away from the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an abductor muscle.

Abrasion: Any injury which rubs off the surface of the skin.

Abscess: An infection which produces pus; can be the result of a blister, callus, penetrating wound or laceration.

Adduct: Movement of an extremity toward the midline of the body. This action is achieved by an adductor muscle.

Adhesion: Abnormal adherence of collagen fibers to surrounding structures during immobilization following trauma or as a complication of surgery which restricts normal elasticity of the structures involved.

Aerobic: Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen inspired and is required for sustained periods of vigorous exercise with a continually high pulse rate.

Anabolic Steroids: Steroids that promote tissue growth by creating protein in an attempt to enhance muscle growth. The main anabolic steroid is testosterone (male sex hormones).

Anaerobic: Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anaphylactic Shock: Shock that is caused by an allergic reaction.

Anterior Compartment Syndrome: Condition in which swelling within the anterior compartment of the lower leg jeopardizes the viability of muscles, nerves and arteries that serve the foot. In severe cases, emergency surgery is necessary to relieve the swelling and pressure.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL): A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint. A complete tear of the ACL necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Anterior Talofibular Ligament: A ligament of the ankle that connects the fibula (lateral ankle bone) to the talus. This ligament is often times subject to sprain.

Anti-Inflammatory: Any agent which prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arteriogram: A film demonstrating arteries after injection of a dye.

Arthrogram: X-ray technique for joints using air and/or dye injected into the affected area; useful in diagnosing meniscus tears of the knee and rotator cuff tears of the shoulder.

Arthroscope: An instrument used to visualize the interior of a joint cavity.

Arthroscopy: A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by means for viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of any damage or confirm a diagnosis.

Aspiration: The withdrawal of fluid from a body cavity by means of a suction or siphonage apparatus, such as a syringe.

Asymptomatic: Without symptoms.

Atrophy: To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Avascular Necrosis: Death of a part due to lack of circulation.

Avascularity: When controlling bleeding.

Avulsion: The tearing away, forcibly, of a part or structure.

Axilla: The armpit.

Baker's Cyst: Localized swelling of a bursa sac in the posterior knee as a result of fluid that has escaped from the knee capsule. A Baker's cyst indicates that there is a trauma inside the knee joint that leads to excessive fluid production.

Bennett's Fracture: A fracture and dislocation of the base of the first metacarpal, the thumb.

Blowout Fracture: A fracture of the cavity containing the eyeball and its associated muscles that can be a result of a direct blow to the eye or cheek.

Bone Scan: An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labelled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. If the radioactive substance is taken up by the bone at the injury site, the injury will show as a "hot spot" on the scan image. The bone scan is particularly useful in the diagnosis of stress fractures.

Brachial Plexus: Network of nerves originating from the cervical vertebrae and running down to the shoulder, arm, hand and fingers.

Bruise: A discoloration of the skin due to an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa: A fluid-filled sac that is located in areas where friction is likely to occur, then minimized the friction; for example between a tendon and bone.

C.P.R.: Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation; artificial establishment of circulation of blood and movement of air into the lungs in a pulseless, non-breathing person.

Calcaneofibular Ligament: The ligament that connects the fibula to the calcaneus.

Calf: Large muscle located at the back of the shin that includes the gastrocnemius and the soleus muscles and is connected to the heel by the Achilles tendon.

Capsule: An enclosing structure which surrounds the joint and contains ligaments which stabilize that joint.

Medical Glossary, (Continued)

Cartilage: Smooth, slippery substance preventing two ends of bones from rubbing together and grating.

CAT Scan: Use of a computer to produce a cross sectional view of the anatomical part being investigated from x-ray data.

Cellulitis: Inflammation of cellular or connective tissue.

Cervical Vertebrae: Group of seven vertebrae located in the neck.

Charley Horse: A contusion or bruise to any muscle resulting in intramuscular bleeding. No other injury should be called a charley horse.

Chondral Fracture: Fracture to the chondral (cartilaginous) surfaces of bone.

Chondromalacia: Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for the roughening of the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Clavicle: The collar bone.

Coccyx: The "tail bone"; a group of four vertebrae that are fused together, located at the terminal end of the spine.

Cold Pack: A pack of natural or synthetic ice that is applied to any injury in order to minimize blood flow in the area to control the injury.

Collagen Substance: Existing in commonly injured tissues of the body, including skin, cartilage, ligaments and bone.

Colles' Fracture: A fracture of the distal end of the radius with the lower end being displaced backward.

Computed Tomography (CT): Method of visualizing the body's soft tissues. Using x-rays with the beam passing repeatedly through the body part, the CT scans while a computer calculates tissue absorption at each point scanned.

Concentric Muscle Contraction: A shortening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to move a resistance.

Concussion: Jarring injury of the brain resulting in dysfunction. It can be graded as mild, moderate or severe, depending on loss of consciousness, amnesia and loss of equilibrium.

Congenital: Existing before birth; to be born with.

Conjunctivitis: Inflammation of the membrane lining the eyelids and covering the eyeball.

Connective Tissue Theory: Microscopic tissue trauma, thought to be brought on by explosive or ballistic movements.

Contractures: Abnormal, usually permanent contraction of a muscle due to atrophy of muscle fibers, extensive scar tissue over a joint, or other factors.

Contusion: An injury to a muscle and tissues caused by a blow from a blunt object.

Cortical Steroids: Used to suppress joint inflammation.

Costochondral: Cartilage that separates the bones within the rib cage.

CPM: Constant passive motion devices used in the early stage of knee rehabilitation.

Cranium: Framework of the head consisting of eight cranial bones, 14 bones of the face and the teeth.

Cryokinetics: Treatment with cold and movement.

Cryotherapy: A treatment with the use of cold.

Cyst: Abnormal sac containing liquid or semi-solid matter.

Debridement: Removal of non-healthy tissues and foreign material from a wound or burn to prevent infection and permit healing.

Degenerative Joint Disease: Changes in the joint surfaces as a result of repetitive trauma.

Dehydration: Loss of body water.

Deltoid Ligament: Ligament that connects the tibia to bones of the medial aspect of the foot and is primarily responsible for stability of the ankle on the medial side. Is sprained less frequently than other ankle ligaments.

Deltoid Muscle: Muscle at top of the arm, just below the shoulder, responsible for shoulder motions to the front, side and back.

Disc, Intervertebral: A flat, rounded plate between each vertebrae of the spine. The disc consists of a thick fiber ring which surrounds a soft gel-like interior. It functions as a cushion and shock absorber for the spinal column.

Dislocation: Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Distal: Term referencing one anatomical term away from another; for example, the hand is distal to the elbow.

Dorsiflexion: Ankle motion such that the foot and toes are moved away from the ground in an upward fashion.

Dorsum: The back; the back surface of any part.

Dysfunction: Unable to function normally as a body organ or system.

Eccentric Muscle Contraction: An overall lengthening of the muscle as it develops tension and contracts to control motion performed by an outside force; often times referred to a "negative" contraction in weight training.

Eccymosis: Bleeding into the surface tissue below the skin, resulting in a "black and blue" effect.

Ectomy: Suffix connoting surgical removal of the affected part.

Edema: Accumulation of fluid in organs and tissues of the body; swelling.

Efferent: Away from, pushing toward the center.

Effusion: Accumulation of fluid, or the knee itself, in various spaces in the body. Commonly, the knee has an effusion after an injury.

Electrical Galvanic Stimulation (EGS): An electrical therapeutic modality that sends a current to the body at select voltages and frequencies in order to stimulate pain receptors, disperse edema, or neutralize muscle spasms among other functional applications.

Electrolyte: Ionized salts in blood, tissue fluids and cells, including salts of sodium, potassium and chlorine.

Electromyogram (EMG): Test to determine nerve function.

Epicondylitis: Inflammation in the elbow due to overuse.

Ethyl Chloride: "Cold spray," a chemical coolant sprayed onto an injury site to produce a local, mild anesthesia.

Etiology: Study of the cause of injury and disease.

Eversion: Action of the ankle turning outward.

Extension: Action of straightening of a joint as achieved by an extensor muscle.

External Rotation: Lateral movement of a joint or extremity to the outside.

Extrinsic: From without.

Fascia: A connective tissue sheath consisting of fibrous tissue and fat which unites the skin to the underlying tissue.

Fat Percentage: The amount of body weight that is adipose, fat tissue. Fat percentages can be calculated by underwater weighing, measuring select skinfold thickness or by analyzing electrical impedance.

Femur: Thigh bone; longest bone in the body.

Fibula: Smaller of the two bones in the lower leg; runs from knee to the ankle along the outside of the lower leg.

Flexibility: The ability of muscle to relax and yield to stretch forces.

Flexibility Exercise: General term used to describe exercise performed by a player to passively or actively elongate soft tissue without the assistance of an athletic trainer.

Flexion: Motion of bending a joint as achieved by a flexor muscle.

Fracture: Breach in continuity of a bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress or transverse.

Gamekeeper's Thumb: Tear of the ulnar collateral ligament of the metacarpophalangeal joint of the thumb.

Glenohumeral: The shoulder girdle; consists of the glenoid capsule, head of the humerus and labrum.

Glenoid: Cavity of the scapula into which the head of the humerus fits to form the shoulder girdle.

Glenoid Labrum: A rim of fibrocartilaginous tissue attached around the margin of the glenoid fossa.

Glycogen: Form in which foods are stored in the body as energy.

Grade One Injury: A mild injury in which ligament, tendon or other musculoskeletal tissue may have been stretched or contused, but not torn or otherwise disrupted.

Grade Two Injury: A moderate injury when musculoskeletal tissue has been partially, but not totally torn which causes appreciable limitation in function of the injured tissue.

Grade Three Injury: A severe injury in which tissue has been significant, and in some cases, totally torn or otherwise disrupted causing a virtual total loss of function.

Groin: Junction of the thigh and abdomen; location of muscles that rotate, flex and adduct the hip.

Hammer Toe: Condition when the first digit of a toe is at a different angle than the remaining digits of the same toe.

Hamstring: Category of muscle that runs from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. It functions to flex the knee and is often times injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of muscle flexibility.

Heat Cramps: Painful muscle spasms of the arms or legs caused by excessive body heat and depletion of fluids and electrolytes.

Heat Exhaustion: Mild form of shock due to dehydration because of excessive sweating when exposed to heat and humidity.

Heat Stroke: Condition of rapidly rising internal body temperature that overwhelms the body's mechanisms for release of heat and could result in death if not cared for appropriately.

Heel Cup: Orthotic device that is inserted into the shoe and worn under the heel to give support to the Achilles tendon and help absorb impacts at the heel.

Hemarthrosis: Accumulation of blood within a joint as a result of an acute injury.

Hematoma: Tumor-like mass produced by an accumulation of coagulated blood in a cavity.

Hip Pointer: Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hot Pack: Chemical pack that rests in water, approximately 160 degrees, and retains its heat for 15-20 minutes when placed in a towel for general therapeutic application.

Humerus: Bone of the upper arm that runs from the shoulder to the elbow.

Hydrotherapy: Treatment using water.

Hyperextension: Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Iliac Crest: Lateral edge of the hip; generally the site of a hip pointer.

Iliotibial Band: A thick, wide fascial layer that runs from the iliac crest to the knee joint and is occasionally inflamed as a result of excessive running.

Induced Erythrocythemia: "Blood doping."

Inferior: Anatomically beneath, lower, or toward the bottom.

Inflammation: The body's natural response to injury in which the injury site might display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness and/or loss of function.

Innervation: The distribution or supply of nerve fibers or nerve impulses to a part of the body.

Intermittent Compression Pump: Therapeutic modality that uses an air pump to send air into a sleeve worn over an injury, on an intermittent basis, in order to disperse edema and break up swelling at the injury.

Internal Rotation: Rotation of a joint or extremity medially, to the inside.

Interosseus Membrane: Uniting membrane between the tibia and fibula that forms a collagenous fibrous tissue. It has two functions; to serve as an origin for many of the muscles of the lower leg, and to transmit stress from the tibia to the fibula.

Intrinsic: Inherent or inside.

Iontophoresis: The use of constant direct current to drive heavy metal ions into and through the skin.

Isokinetic Exercise: Form of active resistive exercise in which the speed of limb movement is controlled by a pre-set limiting machine, such as Cyubex or Biodex.

Isometric Contraction: Muscular contraction in which tension is developed but no mechanical work is done.

Isotonic Contraction: A concentric or eccentric muscular contraction that results in movement of a joint or body part, as in lifting a weight.

"Itis": Suffix connoting inflammation.

Joint Mobilization: Passive traction and/or gliding movements applied to joint surfaces that maintain or restore the joint play normally allowed by the capsule, so that the normal roll-slide joint mechanisms can occur as the player moves.

Labrum (Labrum Glenoidale): The cartilage of the glenoid cavity in the shoulder. A lip-edged or lip-like structure.

Lateral: To the outside of the body.

Lateral Collateral Ligament (LCL): Ligament of the knee along the lateral aspect that connects the femur to the fibula. It provides lateral stability to the joint.

Lesion: Wound, injury or tumor.

Ligament: Band of fibrous tissue that connects bone to bone or bone to cartilage and supports and strengthens joints.

Lumbar Vertebrae: Five vertebrae of the lower back that articulate with the sacrum to form the lumbosacral joint.

Lumbosacral: Region of low back comprised of lumbar and sacral spine.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI): Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react to this pulse and through this process a computer display and permanent film establish a visual image. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc and meniscus injuries.

Malleolus: Rounded projection on either side of the ankle joint; the lateral malleolus is the fibula and the medial malleolus is the tibia.

Mallet Finger: Injury of the finger tip in which the extension tendon is avulsed off the distal phalanx.

Manipulation: A passive movement using physiological or accessory motion which may be applied with a thrust or when the player is under anesthesia.

Maximal Aerobic Power (MAX VO 2): The maximal volume of oxygen consumed per unit of time.

Medial: To the inside of the body.

Medial Collateral Ligament: Ligament of knee along the medial aspect that connects the femur to the joint.

Meniscectomy: An intra-articular surgical procedure for the knee by which all or part of the damaged meniscus is removed.

Meniscus: Crescent shaped cartilage, usually pertaining to the knee joint; also known as "cartilage." there are two menisci in the knee, medial and lateral. These work to absorb weight within the knee and provide stability.

Metacarpals: Five long bones of the hand, running from the wrist to the fingers.

Metatarsals: Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Morbidity: An illness or abnormal condition or quality.

Morton's Neuroma: Involves the nerves and is usually the result of a trauma to the foot, causing inflammation and sharp pain, usually between the third and fourth toes.

Morton's Toe: A hereditary condition in which the second toe is longer than the first toe. This can cause mechanical imbalances which produce pain with weight bearing.

Myositis: Inflammation of a muscle.

Myositis Ossificans Traumatica: A benign ossification, usually following severe trauma to a large muscle mass.

Necrotic: Relating to death of a portion of tissue.

Neoprene: Lightweight rubber used in joint and muscle sleeves designed to provide support and/or insulation to the area.

Neuritis: Inflammation of a nerve.

Olecranon Process: Bony projection of the ulna at the tip of the elbow.

One Repetition Maximum: The maximum amount of weight that can be lifted by the player in a particular exercise at one time. This is used as a strength testing technique.

Orthotic: Any device applied to or around the body in the care of physical impairment or disability, commonly used to control foot mechanics.

Osteochondritis Dessicans: A piece of bone and/or cartilage loosened from its attachment after trauma and a cause of a lesion.

Osteomyelitis: An inflammatory disease of bone caused usually by infection with streptococcus or staphylococcus.

Parasthesia: Sensation of numbness or tingling, indication of nerve irritation.

Patella: The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as increase the mechanical advantage and force generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis: Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as "jumper knee."

Patellofemoral Joint: Articulation of the kneecap and femur.

Pectorals: Chest muscles beneath breast that lead up to the shoulder.

Peroneal Muscles: Group of muscles of the lateral lower leg that are responsible for everting the ankle. Tendons of these three muscles are vital to the stability of the ankle and foot.

Phalanx: Any bone of the fingers or toes; plural is phalanges.

Phlebitis: Inflammation of a vein.

Phonophoresis: The technique of driving whole molecules of medication with ultrasound.

Plantar: Pertaining to the sole of the foot.

Plantar Fascia: The tight band of muscle beneath the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis: Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse of acute foot injury.

Plantarflexion: Ankle motion such that the toes are pointed toward the ground.

Plica: Fold of tissue in the joint capsule and a common result of knee injury.

Pneumothorax: A collection of air or gas in the pleural space causing the lungs to collapse.

Posterior: At the back part, or rear of the body.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL): A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that provides significant stability and prevents displacement of the tibia backward within the knee joint. A complete tear of this ligament necessitating reconstruction could require up to 12 months of rehabilitation.

Progressive Resistance Exercise (PRE): An approach to exercise whereby the load or resistance to the muscle is applied by some mechanical means and is quantitatively and progressively increased over time.

Pronation: In the foot, it is a combination of motions resulting in a position such that the foot is abducted and everted. Foot pronation can be a by-product of an arch problem, leg length discrepancy, or chronically bad running mechanics; can be compromised with the use of an orthotic.

Proprioceptive Neuromuscular Facilitation (PNF): An approach to therapeutic exercise based on the principles of functional human anatomy and neurophysiology.

Proximal: Near the source, nearest any point being described.

Q-Angle: Normal angle of quadriceps relative to the patella. The normal angle for males is 10 degrees.

Quadricep Muscles: A group of four muscles of the front thigh that run from the hip and form a common tendon at the patella; they are responsible for knee extension.

Radiography: Taking of x-rays.

Radius: Forearm bone on the thumb side.

Reconstruction: Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Referred Pain: Pain felt in an undamaged area of body away from the actual injury.

Resect: To cut off, or cut out a portion of a structure or organ.

Retraction: The moving of tissue to expose a part or structure of the body.

Rotator Cuff: Comprised of four muscles in the shoulder area that can be irritated by overuse. The muscles are the supraspinatus (most commonly injured), infraspinatus, teres minor and subscapularis.

SC Joint: Sternoclavicular joint; articulation of the collarbone with the sternum.

Sacroiliac: Junction of the sacrum with the hip bone.

Sacrum: Group of five fused vertebrae located just below the lumbar vertebrae of the lower back.

Scapula: Shoulder blade.

Sciatica: Irritation of the siatic nerve resulting in pain or tingling running down the inside of the leg.

Sciatic Nerve: Major nerve that carries impulses for muscular action and sensations between the low back and thigh and lower leg; it is the longest nerve in the body.

Shin Splint: A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Soft Corn: A corn, softened by moisture, that is found beneath the toes rather than on the upper surface of the toe.

Sorbothane: An energy absorbing polyurethane utilized in some foot orthotics to absorb shock forces of the foot.

Spasm Theory: Muscle soreness induced by exercise; is the result of reduced muscle blood flow, which results in pain.

Spinous Process: A small projection off the posterior portion of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles or ligaments of the spine.

Spleen: Large, solid organ responsible for the normal production and destruction of blood cells.

Spondylitis: Inflammation of one or more vertebrae.

Spondylolisthes: Forward displacement of one vertebra over another below it due to a developmental defect in the vertebrae.

Spondylosis: Abnormal vertebral fixation or immobility.

Sprain: Injury resulting from the stretch or twist of the joint which causes various degrees of stretch or tear of a ligament or other soft tissue at the joint.

Sternum: The breast bone.

Steroids: Any one of a large number of hormone-like substances.

Strain: Injury resulting from a pull or torsion to the muscle or tendon that causes various degrees of stretch or tear to the muscle or tendon tissue.

Stress Fracture: A hair-line type of break in a bone caused by overuse.

Stress X-Ray: A continual x-ray taken when a portion of the body is stressed to its maximum in order to determine joint stability. This is a test utilized in some ankle injuries.

Stretching: Any therapeutic maneuver designed to elongate shortened soft tissue structures and thereby increase flexibility.

Subluxation: Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can return to its normal position without formal reduction.

Superior: In anatomy, the upper of two parts; toward the top or above.

Supination: Movement of the forearm into a palm-up position.

Synchronous: Moving or operating together at the same rate.

Synovial Fluid: Lubricating fluid for joints and tendons, produced in synovium, or the inner lining of a joint.

Synovitis: Inflammation of the synovial lining of a joint.

Talus: The ankle bone that articulates with the tibia and fibula to form the ankle joint.

Target Heart Rate: A pre-determined pulse to be obtained during exercise when circulation is working at full efficient capacities.

Tarsals: Group of six bones of the foot consisting of the calcaneus, talus, cuboid and three cuneiform bones.

Temporomandibular Joint (TMJ): The articulation of the jaw and skull; considered by some to be vital in resolution of injuries throughout the body.

Tendinitis: Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, caused by chronic overuse or sudden injury.

Tendon: Tissue that connects muscle to bone.

Tennis Elbow: General term for lateral elbow strain.

Tenosynovitis: Swelling of a tendon sheath caused by calcium deposits, repeated strain or trauma.

Thermotherapy: Use of heat to treat a disease or disorder.

Thoracic: Group of twelve vertebrae located in the thorax and articulated with the twelve ribs.

Thoracic Outlet Compression Syndrome: A neuro-vascular disorder of the upper extremity common in throwing.

Tibia: Larger of the two bones of the lower leg and the weight-bearing bone of the shin.

Tomograph: A special type of x-ray apparatus that demonstrates an organ or tissue at a particular depth.

Trachea: The windpipe.

Transcutaneous Electrical Nerve Stimulator (TENS): An electrical modality that sends a mild current through pads at the injury site which stimulates the brain to release the natural analgesic, endorphin.

Transverse Process: Small lateral projection off the right and left side of each vertebra that functions as an attachment site for muscles and ligaments of the spine.

Trapezius: Flat, triangular muscle covering the posterior surface of the neck and shoulder.

Triceps: Muscle of the back of the upper arm, primarily responsible for extending the elbow.

Ulna: Forearm bone that runs from the tip of the elbow to the little finger side of the wrist.

Ulnar Nerve: Nerve in the elbow commonly irritated from excessive throwing.

Ultrasonography: Process by which the reflection of high-frequency sound waves is used to develop an image of a structure.

Valgus: Angulation outward and away from the midline of the body.

Varus: Angulation inward and toward the midline of the body.

Vasoconstriction: Decrease of local blood flow.

Vasodilation: Increase of local blood flow.

"Wind Knocked Out": Syndrome describing a contraction of the abdominal nerve trunk, the solar plexus, as a result of an abdominal contusion.

Zygoma: The cheekbone.

Gregg Olson #40

POSITION: RHP

BATS: R THROWS: R

HT: 6' 4" WT: 212

OPENING DAY AGE: 27

BORN: 10/11/66 at Scribner, NE

RESIDES: Reisterstown, MD

M.L. SERVICE: 5 + 032

CONTRACT STATUS: Signed thru '94

ACQUIRED: Signed by the Braves as a free agent on February 8, 1994.

1993 SEASON: --With 29 saves, Olson became the only pitcher in the majors to save at least 20 games in each of his first five seasons ...Placed on the disabled list August 13 (retroactive to August 9) with a strained right elbow ...Olson holds the Orioles record with 160 career saves in 193 opportunities (.829) and has more saves before his 27th birthday than any other pitcher in major league history ...Bobby Thigpen, the next closest, had 121 saves before he turned 27 ...Olson's 160 saves rank 27th all-time and are 14th among active M.L. pitchers ...Registered 21 saves in 22 chances from April 30-July 19, including 15 straight from June 5 -July 19 ...Just three of his 50 appearances lasted longer than one inning ...Went 49 games without surrendering a home run after allowing a homer to the first batter he faced April 7 ...Was activated from the disabled list on September 20, making just one appearance after that on September 22 at Cleveland (walked only batter he faced) ...Was the first Baltimore pitcher to bat since the designated hitter rule came into effect in 1973; he struck out in that at-bat July 21 vs. Kansas City ...Finished eighth in the American League in saves, save opportunities (35) and save percentage (.829) ...Also ranked ninth with 45 games finished ...Inherited runners/scored: 31/15; First batters faced: 14x41; Saves/save opportunities: 29/35.

PRO CAREER: 1992: --Passed Tippy Martinez to become the Orioles all-time save leader, registering his 106th save on May 30 at Oakland ...Became the youngest player in major league history to reach 100 career saves ...His 36 saves (44 opportunities) ranked fourth in the A.L. and fell one shy of his career-high ...Established the longest streak of his career by converting 19 straight save opportunities from April 14-June 22 ...Baseball America's poll of M.L. managers selected his curveball as the American League's best ...Allowed only five of his 31 inherited runners to score, stranding his last 17 runners.

1991: --Became the third pitcher in major league history to save a no-hitter (the Braves' Alejandro Pena became the 4th later that season), when, on July 13 at Oakland, he teamed up with Bob Milacki, Mark Williamson and Mike Flanagan to become only the second quartet ever to combine on a no-hitter ...In that game Olson pitched one perfect inning ...His 72 appearances were second in the A.L. and just four shy of tying the Orioles club record of 76 held by Tippy Martinez ...Set a Baltimore record with 62 games finished, second in the league behind California's Bryan Harvey, who finished with 63 ...His 31 saves in 39 opportunities were seventh in the A.L. ...Surrendered just two homers in 73.2 innings.

1990: --Set an Orioles record with a career-high 37 saves, becoming the youngest player (24) in major league history to save 30 or more games ...Finished fourth in the A.L. in saves and save percentage (.880, 37/42) ...Established a club record with 41.0 consecutive scoreless innings, believed to be the longest ever scoreless streak by a reliever, matching Luis Tiant's streak for Cleveland in 1968 ...Allowed only one run in his first 34.0 innings pitched (21 games) ...Recorded 14 consecutive saves through June 7 ...After 52 games and 72.1 innings, he yielded his first homer at Memorial Stadium to Mark McGwire.

1989: --Named Rookie-of-the-Year for the American League by the Baseball Writers Association of America ...Was the sixth Orioles player and the first pitcher to win the award ...Was also selected the M.L. Rookie-of-the-Year by Baseball America ...Tied for fifth in the Cy Young balloting with Dennis Eckersley and teammate Jeff Ballard ...Finished 12th in A.L. MVP Voting ...Set an A.L. record for most saves by a rookie with 27, breaking Minnesota's Doug Corbett's record of 23 in 1980 ...Only Todd Worrell of the St. Louis Cardinals had more saves in one season as a rookie, 36 in 1986 ...Converted his first 15 save opportunities through July 14 and finished fifth in the A.L. in save percentage (27/33, .818).

1988: --Selected by Baltimore in the first round (4th overall selection) of the June draft, he signed with the Orioles on June 11 but opted to play with the U.S.A. Olympic team ...Practiced with the Olympic squad until asking for his release July 1 ...Two days after receiving permission from Commissioner Peter Ueberroth and the U.S. Baseball Federation to leave the Olympic team, he joined the Baltimore organization on July 9 ...After making brief stops in A Hagerstown and AA Charlotte, he was promoted to Baltimore on September 1 and won his M.L. debut September 2 at Seattle.

PERSONAL/MISC.: --Full name GREGG WILLIAM OLSON ...Married, wife's name is Jill ...A graduate of Northwest High School in Omaha, NE, where he had a 27-0 record with four no-hitters ...Member of U.S. Junior Olympic team and participated in the Pan American Games while attending Auburn ...Was a two-
